The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles A. Carpenter of Erwin. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thomas Withrow of Charlotte.

posed over faille taffeta. The empire lace bodice delicately traced in seed pearls and styled with scalloped sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves. Miniature lace covered buttons closed the back. The A-line skirt featured a detachable wateau train outlined with lace scallops and caught to a bow at the back waistline and spread chapel length. Her veil was of imported silk illusion attached to a crown of lace florets trimmed in pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade bouquet of Stephanotis, brides roses, French carnations, centered with white orchids and showered with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Lawrence Roddy of Winston - Salem was the bride's matron-of-honor and Miss Joey Davis of Charlotte, was the bride's maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Land of Raleigh, Mrs. Herbert Raymond Holt, Jr., of Goldsboro, Mrs. Kim Geselbrach of Charlotte, and Miss Mary Burcette of Coolemeec.

The attendant's floor length dresses of Nile green silk chifon over taffeta were styled in the cage silhouette with bateau neckline and long fitted sleeves. A satin bow accented the front waistline. They wore matching tulle petal hats with pouf veils and carried white satin and lace baskets with daisies, roses, pinks, Stephanotis, and gypsophelia.

Miss Tammie Murrelle of Greensboro was the flower girl and her brother Lenn Murrelle was the ring bearer. The children are cousins of the groom.

The groom's father was best man. Ushers were Jerry Withrow, James Benjamin Hinson, Angel Vasquez, and Ronald Withrow, all of Charlotte; Deitz Carpenter, of Macon Georgia and David Hipps of Canton.

After a wedding trip to the mountains, the couple will live in Charlotte.

The parents of the bride were hosts at a reception in the church social hall immediately following the ceremony.

DO YOU REALLY TRUST GOD?

"But godliness with contentment is great sin. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can take nothing out. And having food and raiment let us therewith be content." (1. Tim. 6:6-7) Inspired truth has herewith given us a set of values which we cannot afford to ignore. Here are things of real value and it is high time we carefully consider those things which we have we could not earn.

We are told that 65 percent of the patients in our hospitals are not physically ill, but are there due to mental pressures and disturbances. We have become addicted to tranquilizers for a cure for hyper-tension and "nerves," while all the time we imbibe "pep pills" to spur us on in a mad "rat-race" of daily frustration. As we struggle to "get ahead" we seldom ask who or what we are trying to get ahead of. Americans are better fed and better clothed than any people on earth. So why the haunting fear of starving or poverty? There is no present shortage of blessings, but we are still driven by a consuming urge to lay up treasures on earth. No man is content who strives to keep abreast of the times in style and riches.

Any man who truly believes God will supply all his needs, and will never forsake him, has no need to be anxious. A strong reliance on God's providence and care precludes anxiety and doubts. Heart attacks, nervous disorders, and high - blood pressures stem from discontent. And such maladies have become common in our generation. Yet all this could be avoided by a strong and abiding faith in God. For when we truly trust in Him it removes all anxiety, discontent, and frustration. The creature is well-adjusted only when serving the purposes of the Creator; and it is only in compliance to the Will of God that true peace and contentment can be had both here and hereafter.
