TOMLINSON-JONES WEDDING

Miss Beverly Jean Tomlinson and Ricky Lanier Jones were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at the First Methodist Church Mocksville.

The half after four p. m. wedding was performed by the Rev. Gilbert Miller, pastor of the church, and the Reverend E. M. Avett, a friend of the bride's family of Mocksville.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Sarah Foster, soloist, head of the Music Department of Louisburg College, Louisburg, and Jimmy Neil Anderson, the bride's cousin of Mocksville, organist.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gordon Tomlinson of Halander Drive, was graduated from Davie County High School and attended Louisburg College, where she was a member of the Glee Club and the newspaper staff. She was presented at the 1966 Debutante Ball in Lexington and is employed for the summer as a staff member of the Davie County Enterprise-Record.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Griffith Lanier Jones of Winston-Salem. He was graduated from Parkland High School in Winston-Salem and attended Louisburg College where he was a member of the Glee Club. He also attended High Point College and is employed by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company in Winston - Salem.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an A-line gown of ivory silk organza designed with a scoop neckline and short sleeves. The empire bodice was enhanced by a Victorian capelet of reembroidered Alençon lace. The skirt had rows of matching lace which was also featured at the scalloped hemline.

She wore a Cathedral mantilla of reembroidered Alençon lace attached to a pill box of peau de soie with lace appliques and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and gypsophila centered with a white orchid. The bride's only ornament was heirloom diamond earrings of her great-grandmother's.

Miss Victoria Davis was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Lane Carlisle of Columbia, South Carolina, Miss Patricia Ellen Fishel and Miss Julia Elizabeth Sell of Winston - Salem, Miss Margaret Joy Walker of Wanchee, and Miss Hope Hall and Mrs. William Daniel Marion IV. The attendants wore cage dresses of apple green crepe over contrasting pink crepe with scoop necklines and short sleeves. Their headpieces were seed pearl clips holding tiers of green illusion. They carried cascades of pink and green carnations.

Chief attendants were Donna Kay Jones and Dianne Jones of Winston - Salem, nieces of the groom, flower girls, and Paige Foster Smith, ring bearer.

Honorary attendants, dressed in pastel street-length dresses and carrying single long-stemmed pink roses, were Mrs. Donald G. Jones of Winston-Salem, Mrs. Thomas Edwin Brandon of Winston - Salem, Miss Judith Kay Redmon of Walkertown, Miss Susan Upshaw of Wilkesboro, Miss Vicki O'Neal of Durham, Miss Anne Nunery of Whitakers, Miss Vaneida Dorcas Dobbins of Raleigh, Miss Gretta Scott of Wilmington and Miss Sherry Gale Collins.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Donald G. Jones, brother of the bridegroom, Thomas Edwin Brandon, Edward Franklin West III and Spencer Carlton Slate, all of Winston - Salem; Charles Gordon Tomlinson, Jr., the bride's brother, and her cousin, Charles Edmund Tomlinson, both of Mocksville; John White Askew and Stanley Dean Yarborough, of Wilmington, and K. B. Bailey of Raleigh.

Reception

The bride's parents hosted a reception following the wedding in the fellowship hall of the church.

Greeting the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Lester P. Martin, Jr., Mrs. Edward L. Short presented them to the receiving line composed of the bride's mother, her father, the groom's parents, the bridal couple and the bridesmaids.

The guests were directed to the bride's table by Mrs. D. J. Mando. The table covered with pink net over a pink cloth was caught up at corners with pink satin bows and pink carnations. The table was accented with an arrangement of pink and white snapdragons, white mums and pink larkspur with tapers in silver candelabra. Two silver punch
