Lions Net $200 From Candy Sale

The Halloween Candy Sales, conducted by the Cooleemee Lions' Club has proved to be a very successful event this year, with the club showing a profit of $200.

The local Lions express their appreciation to the people in the community for their generous support.

The proceeds from the sale will go entirely to the Lions White Cane Drive. The local club is seeking to raise $250 for White Cane and the candy sales have put them well on the way in reaching this goal.

The money raised from Lions Clubs throughout North Carolina is used to assist the blind in our state in many ways.

The commission for the Blind of N.C. receive a share of this money which is used to pay for operations for people who cannot afford the cost and also for treatment to prevent blindness.

A portion of this money is used to support the Eye Bank, the vital point of eye transplant, which enable people who are blind to receive sight.

White Cane proceeds play an important part in giving overall aid to the blind in our state and the Lion's Clubs are proud of the share they are able to contribute to this program.

White Cane is an important function of the Cooleemee Lions Club and the residents of our town have always been most generous in helping the club carry it's share of this program.

Handfull Of Puppies

Marvin Blaylock shows his week-old beagle puppies, which he calls Apollo 1, Apollo 2, Apollo 3, and Apollo 4, to little Rodney Gobble, 3, who thinks they would make mighty cute pets. Of course Marvin says he will train the little "Moon-doggies", whose ancestors came from Shore's Kennel in North Cooleemee, to be hunting dogs as soon as they are old enough. Rodney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gobble of Route 1, Mocksville. (Photo by James Barringer).

Ladies Are Next Tom Nail Is Big Winner At JC Turkey, Ham Shoot

Tom Nail was the big winner at the Jaycees first turkey and ham shoot Saturday, with four country hams.

Other winners were Jerry Cline, Tom Ridenhour, Bill Webb and Monte Blackwood. Each won a country ham and a turkey.

Those winning a country ham were Paul Leatherman, Evan Leatherman, Max Kerley, M. G. Lankford and Robert Page.

Turkey winners were Medford Foster, M. L. Lankford, Ray Spry, Robert Barnhardt, Tommy Hendricks, W. C. Fletcher, Ricky Dull and Lloyd Kyler.

The second turkey and ham shoot of the season will be held Saturday, November 22, in the Cooleemee Ballpark, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

There will be a special event for the ladies at 2 p.m. The first 12 ladies to sign up will be permitted to shoot for half-price in the first match. Other matches for the ladies will be held at regular price if there are enough entries. So all you Annie Oakleys, grab a shootin' iron and be at the ballpark Saturday.

The price is $1.10 per shot with shells furnished. Free coffee will be served to all contestants.

Thanksgiving Issue

Because of Thanksgiving, The Journal will publish on Tuesday instead of Wednesday next week. This will enable the papers to be distributed on the rural routes prior to the Post Office's Thanksgiving holiday.

Because of the early publication, please get your news to Marlene by noon Monday.

Crotts Promoted To Staff Sgt.

Robert L. E. Crotts Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crotts, Rt. 4, Mocksville, N.C., has been promoted to staff sergeant in the U.S. Air Force.

Sergeant Crotts, a personnel specialist at Dyess AFB, Tex., is serving with the 96th Strategic Aerospace Wing, a unit of the Strategic Air Command, America's long-range nuclear bomber and missile force. He previously was assigned at Ankara, Turkey.

The 1963 graduate of Davie County High School attended North Carolina State University before entering the Air Force in 1966. He is a member of Sigma Pi.

His wife, Susan, is the daughter of Mrs. Howard E. Butner of 449 Avalon Road, Winston-Salem, N.C.

Community Thanksgiving Service

The Seventh Annual Community Thanksgiving Service will be held this year on next Sunday evening November 23rd at 6:30 p.m. At the First Baptist Church. The sermon will be preached by Rev. William Dingus, pastor of the Cooleemee United Methodist Church.

Other ministers of the community will also have part in this service of worship and praise. The combined choirs of the Methodist, Episcopal and First Baptist Churches will bring special music under the direction of Mrs. Ann Boger, choir director of the Methodist Church.

This service at Thanksgiving has become a tradition in our community when all our people of Cooleemee come together to thank God for his blessings and goodness to us.

In this time of turmoil and confusion, war and hate, it behooves us to gather in His Church to petition for His guidance and grace. This is one time when we need to come as one for worship and thanksgiving.

You are cordially invited to bring your family and worship with all the families of Cooleemee
