Legion, Lions Will Hold Raffle

Members of the American Legion Post 54 and the Cooleemee Lion's Club are selling tickets on a model 1100 Remington, 12 gauge automatic shotgun to be given away on December 24.

Tickets may be purchased from any Legion member or Lion for 50 cents. Drawing will be held on Christmas Eve at the Cooleemee Hardware and Sporting Goods Store at 5 p.m. You do not have to be present to win.

All proceeds will go towards the purchase of new street markers for the community.

The Cooleemee American Legion Post 54 will hold their annual Christmas Party on Friday, December 19, at the Legion post, beginning at 7 p.m.

Barbecue and turkey with all the trimmings will be served to all members and courtesy members.

Homemakers Slate Party

The Cooleemee Homemakers will hold their annual Christmas party on Friday, December 19, at the home of Mrs. Alice Gabbert at 6 p.m. The occasion will be a covered dish supper.

All members are asked to bring an inexpensive gift to be exchanged.

Jill Driver three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Driver of Rt. 3, Mocksville flashes a Christmas smile while enjoying some ice cream.

Decorations Contest To Be Judged Dec. 19

The Home Decorations Contest, sponsored by the Recreation Center of Erwin Mills, will officially be judged on Friday, December 19, from 7 until 10 p.m. All residents in Cooleemee are asked to have their lights on at this time to avoid being missed by the judges.

Prizes this year will be awarded in the form of checks to first, second and third place winners. The winner will receive $50, second place $35, and third place $15.

Judges will be from out of town.

Winners will be notified on Monday, December 22, and awarded their prizes.

Bluemont Has Top Float

Bluemont won the prize for the most original float in the Mocksville Christmas Parade last week.

Other prizes went to N.C. Finishing Company for the Best Commercial float, Farmington 4-H Club for the Best Spiritual, Rowan Tech for the Best All-Around, and Clydesdale for the Best Horses.

Sixty-five units entered the parade.
