

Cooleemee Journal

Library 5-3-66
Alle, N C 27028

64th Year
No. 6

COOLEEMEE, NORTH CAROLINA
Wednesday, February 11, 1970

16 Pages
10 Cents

Will You Be My Valentine?

Sonya Foster, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Foster of Duke Street, appears a little undecided about her first valentine proposition, but that big box of candy might be enough to win her. (Staff photo by Barringer)

Holy Cross Lenten Services To Begin On Wednesday Night

Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church, located on Highway 601 South of Mocksville, will begin a special observance of the Lenten Season on Wednesday, February 11.

The Season of Lent lasts for

Lonnie R. Barnes Gets Promotion

Army Private Lonnie R. Barnes of Company C, 1st Brigade has achieved accelerated promotion to the rank of Private E-2 while undergoing basic training recently in Fort Bragg, N.C.

He accomplished this by finishing in the top one-third of his company in the overall combined scored of rifle marksmanship, physical training and end of training general proficiency tests results.

Private Barnes is the son of Mrs. Kathryn McDaniel of Watt Street.

ning at 7:30 throughout the season.

Guest ministers will be conducting the services. The schedule of services will be as follows: February 11, Ash Wednesday Communion Service; February 18, The Rev. Claude V. Deal; February 25, The Rev. William R. Rhyne; March 4, The Rev. Edgar Lindler; March 11, The Rev. Glenn A. Miller; March 18, The Rev. Harry Rau; March 25, The Rev. Don Loadholdt.

All people of the community are invited to attend this special series of Lenten services.

'Absolute Minority Group' To Entertain At Valentines Dance

The "Absolute Minority Group", a combo from Statesville will provide entertainment at the annual Valentines dance Saturday night at the Cooleemee Gym. This years dance is being sponsored by the Cooleemee Jaycettes.

The new Valentine Sweetheart will be crowned during the evening by Miss Annette Eckerd of Mocksville, last years winner.

For the first time, all girls, who are students at Davie High School are eligible to compete for the Valentine Sweetheart title. Each girl is asked to turn in a photograph of themselves to Mrs. Dorothy Richardson, a teacher at Davie, or contact any local Jaycette.

Admission will be $1 stag and $1.75 per couple. The concession stand will be open.

Davie County To Host North Piedmont Tourney

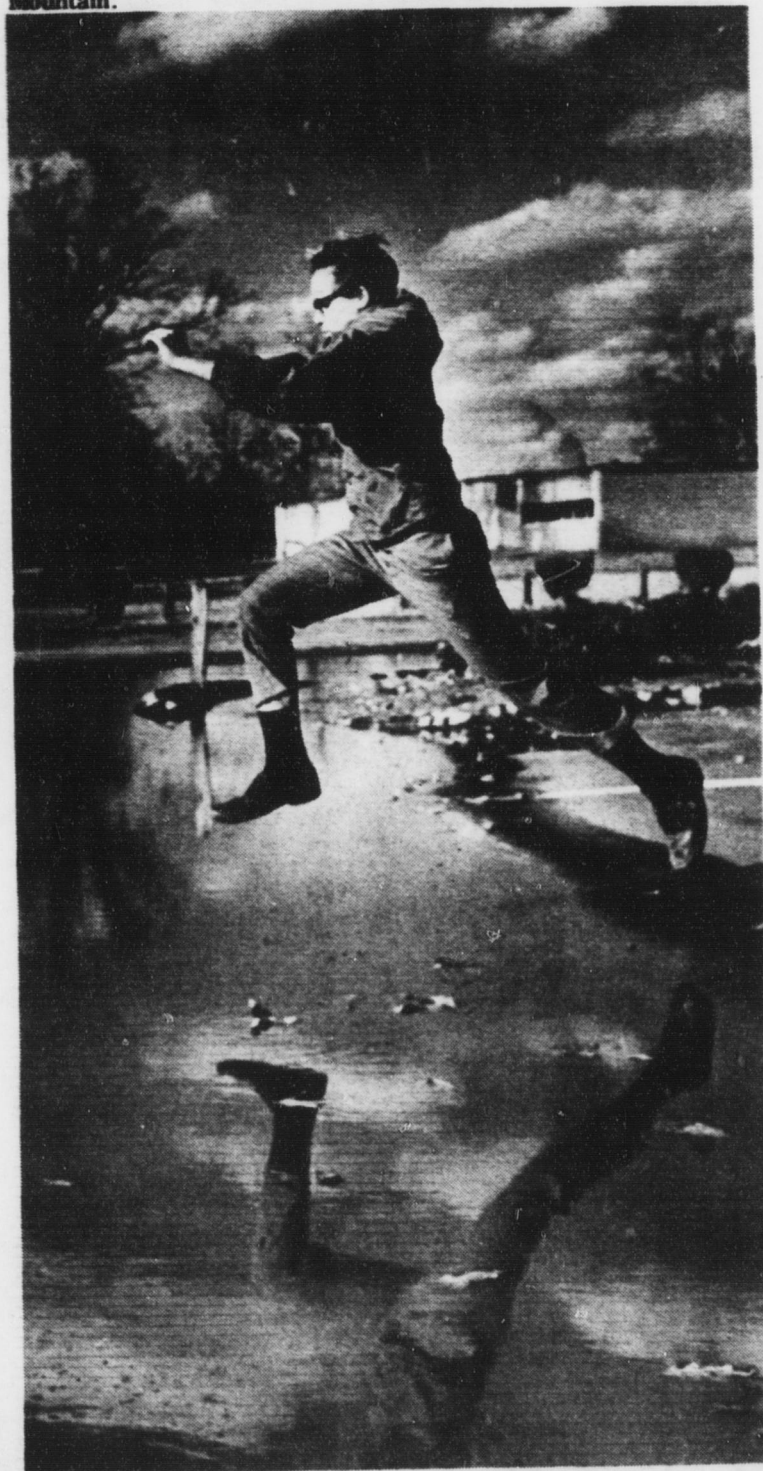

Davie County will be the site of the North Piedmont Conference basketball tournament for the second straight year, but the South Piedmont Conference tourney site has not yet been decided.

The NPC tournament will be held on Feb. 27 and 28, and March 2, 3 and 5 at Davie County. The SPC event will be staged on the same dates.

The Northwestern Conference tournament will be held at Marion, and the Southwestern Conference event is set for Kings Mountain.

No South Piedmont schools made a bid for the tournament, which was held in Concord last year. W. C. Clary, executive secretary of the Western North Carolina High School Activities Association, hopes to find a site for the tourney in the next few days.

The South Piedmont is also scheduled to hold the North-South Piedmont tournament on March 9 and 10, plus the WNCHSAA finals on March 13. Clary is also seeking to solve that problem.

Feelin' Groovy

Avery Street looks like he is heading for a case of spring fever as he leaves Davie High School by jumping over a puddle. (Photo by Barringer).