

MRS. THELMA LIVENGOOD, Davie Street, housewife — "Well I think at times it looks nice to dress alike, but there are times when it doesn't. I mean in sportswear is o.k."

MISS KATHLEEN MORGAN, Rowan Mills — "I don't believe they should. There should be a real distinction. A lady should dress as a lady and a gentleman should dress as a gentleman."

EDDIE MAYS, Needmore Rd., Hall Mfg. Co. — "I guess it's alright. But I'd rather for a girl to look like a girl and a boy to look like a boy."

MISS JACKIE MAULDIN, Route 4, Mocksville, Davie sophomore — "Well I like to be able to tell them apart."

DANNY SPRY, Hwy. 801, Cooleeemee sixth grader — "Well if they want to do it I guess it's o.k. It's them, and if they want to it's o.k. It depends on what their parents say."
