Development Committee To Meet Thursday At Rec. Center

The Board of Directors of the Cooleemee Industrial Development Association has called a meeting of all members of the association for Thursday night, March 19, at the Recreation Center here. The meeting is scheduled to get under way at 7:30 p.m. Letters have also been sent to all members informing them of the meeting and urging them to attend.

This meeting is being held for members of the association only and not for the entire town as reported in last Wednesday's Salisbury Post.

At this time, the board of directors will present their proposal "to seriously consider the incorporation of Cooleemee". If the proposal is approved by the association, a town meeting will be called in the very near future to be held in the Cooleemee School auditorium.

The board members will make every effort to have experts of all related fields present to answer any questions of the people at this open meeting.

There has been considerable concern recently about the discontinuing of the water and sewage here. Bob Hoyle, association president said, "There is no basis to this at all." He further commented that there has been no indication whatsoever as to this happening here.

The CIDA is planning to keep the towns people fully informed as to the results of Thursdays meeting and notified as to the date of the upcoming community-wide meeting.
