Deaths And Funerals

Mocksville Woman Dies Instantly In Car Wreck

MOCKSVILLE — A Mocksville woman died instantly when she was thrown from an overturning car and the vehicle rolled over her early Sunday.

State Highway Patrolman A. C. Stokes identified her as Mrs. Bertha Hutchins Bullin, 29, of 465 Maple Avenue Ext., Mocksville.

He said she died instantly of massive injuries as a result of the 1:20 a.m. Sunday accident on Prison Camp Road about a half mile west of Mocksville.

Her husband, Clay Kemp Bullin, 33, of the same address, was admitted to Davie County Hospital here with head injuries.

Patrolman Stokes said that Bullin was driver of the 1954 Chevrolet which was being driven west on Prison Camp Road. He lost control of the vehicle in a curve. The car ran off the right side of the road and overturned.

In the process of overturning, the patrolman said the woman was thrown from the car and the vehicle ran over her. The car was demolished.

Patrolman Stokes said that in this incident, seat belts would have prevented the woman from being thrown from the vehicle, and probably would have prevented the fatal injuries.

Charges are pending.

Mrs. Bullin was born June 14, 1940, in Yadkin County, the daughter of Lawrence Hutchins of Mt. Airy and Mrs. Hattie Bullin Hutchins Luffman of Charlotte.

Also surviving are her husband, Kemp Clay Bullin; two sons, Denny and Randy Bullin of the home; a brother, Bernard Ray Hutchins of Linwood, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Junior Greggs of Linwood, Calif.; and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bullin of Yadkinville.

Inflation Of The Future

Then there was the fellow who bumped his head and went into a 20-year coma. Awakening refreshed and clear-headed in 1990, the first thing he did was to phone his broker. With the help of a computer set-up, it took his broker only a few minutes to report that his shares of stock were now worth $8.5 million.

"Good Lord!" exclaimed the man. "I'm rich."

At which point the telephone operator came on the line and said, "Your three minutes are up. Please deposit a million dollars."
