

Senior Citizens Invited To Sing

By MARY DUNCAN

The Senior Citizens held their regular meeting on Monday at the Recreation Center with 64 members and one visitor, Mrs. Raymond Gibson, present.

Following the business session, conducted by President Fred Murphy, Rev. David Edwards, pastor of the North Coolseeme Baptist Church, led the devotionals.

The sunshine committee reported get well cards were sent to Mrs. Betie McClamrock, Mr. Kenneth Sedberry, Mr. Floyd Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Spry.

Flowers were provided by Mrs. Godbey, Sadie and Ellen Click.

Program director, Mrs. Johnson, introduced a Mrs. Sallie Doolittle (who turned out to be our own Theo Rice) to the club. She played some beautiful and well remembered selections on the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Burton Jones also participated in the program by singing a medley of old songs.

The club received invitations to sing at the South River Methodist Church on Monday night, April 20th, and from North Coolseeme Baptist Church on Tuesday night, April 21st.

All members wishing to attend these services are asked to be at the Recreation Center at 6:45 p.m.

All members are requested to bring something to sell or trade to the next meeting, April 27th. An auction will be held and you may bring anything you think you can sell or trade at this time.

Card Of Appreciation

We would like to acknowledge our appreciation to our friend and neighbors for their kindness and thoughtful deeds during the illness of our mother and grandmother, Amanda Crotts. We would especially like to say Thank You to Dr. Spargo for his services, day or night, when called. Also to our pastor, Rev. Robert Frost we are grateful. May God bless each one. Eugene, Juanita, Debbie and Bob Crotts.

Baptist W.M.U. Holds Meeting

The W.M.U. of the North Coolseeme Baptist Church held their monthly meeting in the new fellowship building of the church on Friday night.

President Mrs. Lillian Gibson conducted the meeting. Following the devotions and program, the 10 members and three visitors held a Grab Bag Sale, which was very enjoyable.

The ladies enjoyed good food, fellowship and a good program.
