

Cooleemee Journal

64th Year
No. 20

COOLEEMEE, NORTH CAROLINA
Wednesday, May 20, 1970

16 Pages
10 Cents

Fun In A Flower Patch

Sandy Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snyder of Davie Street was caught having some fun in a flower patch by photographer James Barringer on a warm spring afternoon.

Don't Be Ridiculous

The young woman was breezing along in the left-hand lane when suddenly, and without warning, she made a sharp right turn and almost slammed into another car.

"For crying out loud, lady, why didn't you signal?" yelled the other driver.

"Don't be ridiculous," came the indignant reply. "I always turn at this corner."

Jayettes Plan Card Party

The Cooleemee Jayettes will sponsor a card party on June 6, at the Cooleemee School Cafeteria. Cards will be furnished for all types of card games.

There will be many prizes to play for in addition to the door prizes. Get together a party of four for an evening of fun and support the local jayettes.

Tickets will soon go on sale and additional information will be provided in the next issue of the Journal.

Hayden Beck Also Files

Hayden Beck of 2 Ford Street filed today as a candidate for the Town Council to be voted on in the June 20 election.

The deadline for filing is Thursday at 12 noon.

Registration Books Open Saturday

The books will be open for the first day of registration on Saturday at the Cooleemee School.

This will be a new registration for all qualified voters in Cooleemee and everyone must register in order to vote in the upcoming election concerning the incorporation of the town.

The books will remain open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. They will be open again on May 30 and June 6. Challenge day will be June 13.

All eligible voters are urged to register and then to exercise your given rights by voting on June 20th, the way you feel is best for the people and the town of Cooleemee.

Lions To Conduct Broom Sale Monday

The Cooleemee Lions Club will conduct their annual broom sale on Monday, May 25, with a door to door canvass throughout the town beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The brooms are made by the Industry For The Blind of Greensboro and all proceeds will go to the Sight Conservation Fund.

'I'm A Mama,' Shouts Monty As Egg Hatches

Little Monty Smith of Route 5, Mocksville took his father, Carman, literally when he handed him a bird egg and told him to hatch it. Monty held the tiny egg cupped in his hand for about an hour and told his mother that it was moving. No one really paid any attention to him until he suddenly yelled for his mother and father to look. Sure enough the egg shell had cracked open and a little starling was peeping to the top of it's voice.

Little Monty, five, grinned real big and said "I'm a mamma."

PEGGY FOSTER

HAYDEN BECK

Foster, Wensil File For Council

Mrs. Peggy Foster of Center Street, and Aubrey Wensil of Davie Street have filed as candidates for the town council and will be voted on in the June 20th election on the possible incorporation of Cooleemee.

All persons living within the temporary proposed boundaries who are interested in filing must do so by tomorrow's (Thursday) deadline.

Applications may be picked up from Dr. Ramey Kemp of Mocksville, chairman of the County Board of Elections, or from the Cooleemee Journal office. The application and filing fee must be turned in to Dr. Kemp or Mrs. Kemp by 12 o'clock noon Thursday, May 21.

Candidates who have previously filed are Denny Creason, Charles Church, Mrs. Muriel Gude, Flake Blackwood, Ward Setzer and Jackie Morton.

AUBREY WENSIL