Six Locals Get Honors At Rowan Tech

Six local youths have been named to the honors list at Rowan Technical Institute in Salisbury.

To qualify for the honor list, a student must take a minimum work load of 12 quarter hours and maintain at least a 3.0 average with no grade lower than a C.

Those making the list from the area include Sarah Dianne Call of Mocksville, Judy Kay Seamon of Woodleaf, Charles Edgar Milholen, II, of Cooleemee, Frances Seats Smith of Mocksville, Shirley Baker Wall of Mocksville and Margie Lucille Wetmore of Woodleaf.

FBI Agents Investigating Hardware Store Break-In

County and Federal agents are continuing the investigation of a break-in at the Cooleemee Hardware and Sporting Goods Store here on Friday night.

The burglary was discovered when it was time to open for business on Saturday morning.

An estimated $2,000 in merchandise was stolen including 19 guns, an undetermined amount of ammunition, air conditioner, two radios, watches and over forty cartons of cigarettes.

There was no cash taken. The burglars also left two muzzle-loading antique guns that have been on display in the store for quite sometime.

The burglars apparently entered through the front door by prying the lock open, but the plate glass windows were unharmed.

Owners Goerge Jordan and Terry Dedmon were out of town on a fishing trip at the time of the robbery.

It was learned that a Federal Bureau of Investigation agent
