

Despite Rain Picnic Spirit Was As Bright As Sunshine

Despite the rain that poured, the 90th annual Masonic Picnic was a spirited, happy affair. Above the folks just ignored the rain and stood up under sheltered tables to eat. Lieutenant governor Robert Morgan speaks as H. R. Hendrix Jr. listens intently at left, and pretty

Miss Mocksville Patricia Hendrix rubs noses with a furry friend below.

No carnival is complete without candy apples, and Charlotte and Dawn Funderburk, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Missick Funderburk of Mocksville agree

