

Hawaiian Luau At Hickory Hill Club

Approximately 425 people attended the Hawaiian Luau at Hickory Hill Golf and Country Club Saturday evening, August 29th.

Upon their arrival, the guests, who were appropriately attired for the occasion, were presented leis by Miss Patricia Hendrix and Miss Lynn Owens. Seating was around the swimming pool of the club at tables covered with bright linen cloths.

A buffet supper was served by Paul Myers Catering Service of Winston-Salem.

An elaborate floral arrangement was floating in the center of the pool. The centerpiece featured Bird of Paradise blossoms with other floral clusters. Smaller arrangements of candles and flowers made a web around the centerpiece.

Each table was centered with flowers and candles. Fire torches, paper flowers, and other items characteristic of the Islands were used to advantage in decorating.

After the meal, dancing was enjoyed to the music of Cecil Campbell and His Islanders.

LUAU—About 425 people attended the Hawaiian Luau held Saturday night. At top, guests line up at the buffet table, and at bottom, Cecil Campbell and his Islanders provide music for dancing.
