Hazel Carolyn Deese Weds Mr. William Edward Wilkins

TROY — Miss Hazel Carolyn Deese and William Edward Wilkins, son of the Rev. and Mrs. W.H. Wilkins of Route 10, Salisbury, were married here Sunday at Laurel Hill Baptist Church.

The bridegroom's father officiated at the 3:30 p.m. ceremony. Mrs. Dian Wilkins of Kannapolis, soloist, and Mrs. Gladys Burrow, organist, presented the music. Mrs. Virgie Deese, mother of the bride, entertained afterwards with a reception in the fellowship hall.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Gerald Deese. She wore a gown of silk organza with scallops of re-embroidered Chantilly lace and seed pearls on the camelot neckline and down the front giving a reddingote effect. The camelot sleeves and A-line skirt, which extended into a chapel train, were also embroidered in lace. Her floor-length mantilla of silk illusion was held in place by a prayer cap of lace and pearls. Her bouquet was daisies and pompons showered with sari streamers.

Janis Deese attended as maid of honor for her sister. She wore a floor-length dress of melon crepe and lace with matching headpiece, and carried a nosegay of yellow pompons and daisies.

Judy Evans of Roxboro, Patsy Wilkins of Salisbury, Patsy Kidd of Asheboro, Glenda Sneed of Rockingham, Janis Jillis and Toni Hendren were bridesmaids. Their dresses were egg shell and melon crepe and lace with matching headpieces. They also carried nosegays of yellow daisies and pompons.

Beth Deese of Star was flower girl, and Jerry Deese attended as ringbearer.

The bridegroom had his twin brother, Bob Wilkins of Kannapolis, as best man. David Wilkins of Salisbury, Herb Jacobs of Carrollton, Ga., Frank Evans of Roxboro, Buddy Hunt of Mt. Gilead, Jerry Daniel and A.J.

Deese ushered.

For a wedding trip to the coast, Mrs. Wilkins changed into a brown and beige ensemble with matching accessories and added a corsage of daisies and pompons. The couple will live on Eldorado Street after September 17.

Mrs. Wilkins is employed at Troy Lumber Company. She is a graduate of West Montgomery High School, and has studied secretarial science at Asheboro Commercial College.

Mr. Wilkins has a B.S. degree in mathematics from Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, and is currently teaching at West Montgomery High School in Mt. Gilead. He also graduated from Davie County High School.

Immunization Survey Slated For Cooleeemee

A survey taken annually to determine the extent to which people have been inoculated against communicable diseases will be made here the week of September 14 by the Bureau of the Census, according to Joseph R. Norwood, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Charlotte.

The immunization survey is part of a national program coordinated by the U.S. Public Health Service. Information on immunization will be collected in conjunction with the Bureau's monthly survey of employment and unemployment for the U.S. Department of Labor which provides a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation as a whole and of its major regions.

The interviewer who will visit households in this area included in the sample survey is Mrs. June C. Bullabough, Rt. 1, Box 27-A, Mocksville, N. C. 27028.
