

Cooleemee Journal

64th Year
No. 39

Wednesday, Oct. 7, 1970
COOLEEMEE, NORTH CAROLINA

12 Pages
10 Cents

EAGER YOUNGSTER EXAMINES FORBIDDEN FRUIT

What could be more exciting than a monster magazine?

Rev. Burchette Resigns At First Baptist

Rev. Chas. P. Burchette, pastor of the First Baptist Church for the last ten years rendered his resignation to the congregation on Sunday.

Rev. Burchette has accepted the position of Secretary of Missions of the Tar River Baptist Association in Franklin and Nash counties of the state. He and Mrs. Burchette will live just outside of the town of Louisburg, N.C.

Rev. Burchette's ministry will be concluded with the morning worship service on November 15th.

Janet Mauldin Gets Promotion

Janet Mauldin of Fort McClellan, Alabama has been promoted to Staff Sgt.

Miss Mauldin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Mauldin of Rt. 4, Mocksville.

TRAINABLE CLASS—A trainable class of retarded children has made great strides toward opening up the door to education. Here Mrs. Jerry Hanes, teacher aide, Gina Seaford, Connie Yok-

Community Day Set Saturday

The first annual Community Day in Cooleemee will be observed on Saturday, Oct. 10 from 11:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. at the Cooleemee recreation center and sponsored by the Cooleemee Recreation Commission.

The Community Day will consist of a barbeque with barbeque chicken, games and prizes, horse shoe tournaments, badminton tournament, ping-pong, bingo and etc. Also cakes will be on sale by the Cooleemee Jaycettes. In addition to barbeque hot dogs and cold drinks will also be served.

Tickets for the barbeque are now on sale from any member of the Recreation Commission or Grimes Parker, director, at $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children. Proceeds will go to the Recreation center.

The recreation center is yours, the community, and must be supported by you. Remember Saturday, Oct. 10, COMMUNITY DAY and come out for a day of good food and fun and support the recreation center.

Legion Post Issues Recreation Challenge

American Legion Post 54 challenges all Civic groups, churches, or any individual for contributions, regardless of the amount, to the recreation center. These contributions are a must in order to keep the recreation center in operation.

This week Post 54 donated $100.00 to the Recreation Commission to get the ball rolling. Every week the Journal will carry an up to date record of contributions made to the Recreation commission. You may mail your contributions to the Recreation Commission or to the Journal at Box 548.

In order to keep the recreation facilities alive and working for the benefit of the entire community, contributions from the community are a necessity; and will be greatly appreciated by the community as a whole.

Below is a score box which will be published weekly to keep all informed of how the challenge has been accepted.

American Legion.....$100.00
TOTAL TO DATE....$100.00

Homemakers Plan Halloween Party

The Cooleemee Homemakers Club will have a covered dish supper and Halloween party on Friday, Oct. 16 at 6:30 which will be held at the Cooleemee recreation center.

All members are asked to dress for Halloween.

Methodist Women Enjoy Retreat

Mrs. Bessie Naile, Juanita Fry, Sadie Steele, Lois Boger, Margaret Call, Christine Hinkle, Carol Wagoner and Beulah Munday from Liberty United Methodist Church went to Lake Junaluska for a spiritual life retreat last weekend and had a most enjoyable time.

ley, Lisa Anderson, Gary Jones, Kay Howell, Mrs. Rick Shaw, teacher, Phillip Tucker and Danny Chunn enjoy the rhythm of a dance in the classroom. (Photo by Barringer).