

Merry Christmas

Jenny Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Route 4 Mocksville gives a wry smile as she talks to Santa Claus at the Cooleemee Shopping Center last week. Christmas is only three days away, and the kids on pages four and five are getting set.

Cooleemee Journal

64th Year Monday, Dec. 21, 1970 12 Pages
No. 49 COOLEEMEE, NORTH CAROLINA 10 Cents

No Journal Next Week

The Journal will not publish next week in order to give us all a break.

The next Journal that will be published will come out on Wednesday, January 6.

All of us at the Journal wish each of you a very Merry Christmas.

We certainly appreciate all the support we have received during the past year from all our subscribers and advertisers.

Again, we say Merry Christmas to all!

The Journal Staff:

- Marlene Benson, Editor.
- Haden Hurley, Advertising.
- Jason Lesley, News and Make-up.
- James Barringer, Photographer.
- Jim Hurley, Publisher.
- Dot Gregory, Bookkeeper.
- Bud Sell, Landlord.
- Bill White, Postmaster.
- Tommy Smith, Post Office.
- Hayden Beck, Post Office.
- Ray, Crack and Clay Trexler, Maintenance.
- Gerry Hurley, Moral Support.

Santa Visits In Shopping Center

Santa Claus will be visiting the Cooleemee Hardware and Sporting Goods Store in the shopping center on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings from 6 p.m. until 7 p.m.

The children are welcome to talk to him at this time.

Christmas Party

The Adult Ladies Bible Class of the First Baptist Church held their annual Christmas covered dish supper at the home of Mrs. Cora Page on Pine Ridge Road on Tuesday, December 15, at 6:00 p.m. The group enjoyed the fellowship and the dinner by candlelight with Christmas decorations making it a true and impressive season. A gift was presented to the teacher, Mrs. Thelma Gregory and other exchange of gifts. Devotions were given by the teacher, after which a social hour was enjoyed. Those attending were Mrs. Versie Carter, Mrs. Beatrice Shore, Mrs. Essie Bowers, Mrs. Emma Owens, Mrs. Rose Myers, Mrs. Edna Eaton, Mrs. Lillian Spry, Mrs. Margaret Jordan, Mrs. Jettie Jordan, Mrs. Evie Ridenhour, the hostess, Mrs. Page and Mrs. Gregory. Mrs. Margie Milholen assisted her mother with the serving.

School Chorus To Be Guests

The Cooleemee School Chorus will be a guest on the "Today At Home" show on WSJS Channel 12 Television on Christmas Day. The show was taped from their appearance on Tuesday, December 15.

Mrs. Jack Cope has her dog Vickie all dolled up for the Holidays. More photos on page 12. (Photo by Barringer.)