Library News

Be merry all, be merry all,
With holly dress the festive hall;
Prepare the song, the feast, the ball,
To welcome merry Christmas.

W. R. Spencer

The Christmas Open House held at the library on Monday night could aptly be described by this verse. The festive event was celebrated by a full house of guests who entered into the Christmas spirit as they enjoyed carols, organ music, and a varied collection of holiday arts, crafts, and decorations.

A special thanks goes out from the library staff to those who made this joyous affair possible: Mike Hendrix, Mrs. Gene Smith, Peggy Robinson, The Young Musicians Choir, The Folk Advent Youth Group, The Christmas Carolers, the Library Committee of the Mocksville Woman's Club, and the members of the community who contributed to the arts and crafts exhibit. Also to the following Jaycees who furnished the transportation of the organ to and from the library: Tom Drillette, Harold Odum, Freeman Barker, Ken Honeycutt, Buster Cleary, and Al Fullbright.

Cadets Speak To Appointees At Wake Forest

Local high school students who are future appointee aspirants to the Air Force, Coast Guard, Military, and Naval academies will have an opportunity to hear about the academies "as they really are" directly from the cadets who presently are attending these academies.

The services academy cadets will be home for the holidays and will meet in what is known as a "Grass Roots" program on Saturday, December 26, at 10:00 a.m. in De Tamble Auditorium, Wake Forest University.

The program is designed for high school students who have applied or plan to apply for a nomination to one of these academies. Each cadet will explain some portion of academy life to the audience and tell it "like it is," pulling no punches.

TURNER GREGORY of Pine Ridge Road remains a patient at the V.A. Hospital in Durham for treatment and observation.

MR. AND MRS. ALLEN SNIPES and family were the weekend guests of his mother, Mrs. George P. Johnson and family of Erwin. They also attended the wedding of Miss Ann Stewart, formerly of Cool-

Davie Hospital Increases Rates

MOCKSVILLE — The Davie County Hospital has announced that its present room rates will be increased, effective Feb. 1, 1971, to meet the increasing costs of operation.

W. E. Roark, hospital administrator, announced the following increases: Private rooms, from $32 to $34 per day to $36 to $38; semi-private rooms, from $28 and $30 to $31 and $33, wards, from $25 to $28; and nursery, from $12 and $14 to $17 and $18.

Hospital officers, elected at the December board of directors meeting, include Wayne Eaton, chairman; V. G. Prim, vice chairman; and Mrs. Lois Shore, treasurer and temporary secretary.

The board adopted a resolution of appreciation to Ted L. Junker, for 17 years of service to the board; and forwarded letters of appreciation to Charles L. Barnhardt, for five years of service, and to Knox Johnstone, for one year of service.
