

Daily Jobs

Mr. Herbert White, of Greenville, spent Thursday in Farmville.

Mrs. E. C. Beaman left today for a visit to her parents in Snow Hill.

Mrs. G. M. Holden left Thursday morning for a visit to friends in Goldsboro.

Mrs. E. L. Barrett returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Washington.

Watch the "Up Town" boys pile cans. The prize will be ready March 27th.

Miss Lizzie Gay returned home last Friday from a visit to relatives in Norfolk.

Mr. C. R. Townsend, went to Raleigh Tuesday returning Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ray West, of Walstonburg, was here Sunday with her mother who is very ill.

For Sale—Two fine cows, right ready for milking.—Write or see J. R. Lewis, Farmville N. C.

Anyone wishing to buy a good buggy will do well to see Mr. G. M. Shirley at W. M. Lang Co.'s store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Viverett, of Battleboro, spent Sunday here with Mrs. Viverett's sister, Mrs. J. E. Warren.

Just arrived a nice selection of up-to-date styles of Queen Quality low quarters for ladies.—W. M. Lang Co.

Note the change in the various advertisements in this issue, and mention seeing same to those who advertise.

Mrs. J. E. Warren spent last Friday in Washington with her sister Mrs. Davenport, who is in a hospital in that city.

Miss Rosa Moore, of Wadesboro, came in Sunday morning to see her mother, who has been critically ill for some time.

Mrs. Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse, of Greenville, spent a few hours in Farmville Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. G. A. Rouse.

Dr. C. C. Joyner, of Norfolk, Va., spent a few days here this week on business and shaking hands with his many friends.

Mr. M. E. Jones, the clever and efficient Manager of the local telephone exchange, spent Sunday in Benson visiting relatives.

We are opening up a nice and complete line of Spring goods. All the latest shades in crepe and silks. Let us show you.—W. M. Lang Company.

Mr. J. B. Moore, our clever and efficient Express agent, paid Waits, N. C. another of those professional(?) visits last Sunday.

Ladies!—Don't buy that spring or summer goods for your dresses until you see our line. We believe it will pay you.—D. F. & R. O. Lang.

Mr. E. B. Whichard, of Whichards' one of our county commissioners, accompanied by his wife, paid Farmville a business visit Wednesday.

See those Dutchess Trousers at D. F. & R. O. Lang's, you'll like them for spring and summer. Every pair of them guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Monk returned Wednesday night from Richmond Va., where Mrs. Monk underwent an operation. She is improving rapidly.

We have just received a handsome line of Thompson Bros. low quarter and high top shoes on men for spring and summer wear. These are without a doubt the best on the market. Style and quality unquestionable.—W. M. Lang Company.

Messrs. H. L. Humphrey and W. C. Collier made a cross country visit to Rocky Mount, Nashville and Spring Hope this week. They returned Thursday.

Miss Bertha Parrish, of Baltimore, arrived Sunday to be with E. L. Barrett, at the ladies store during the spring and summer season at designer and trimmer of fashionable head wear.

We wish to call your special attention to our line of spring coat suits now on display. Quality and price guaranteed. We invite you to see them.—Mrs. J. Wells Smith.

Don't forget to take some stock in the Farmville Building and Loan Association. You will be doing the wise thing to help in this great movement for the progress of Farmville.

Messrs. A. C. Monk and S. G. Wilkerson spent a few days in High Point and other furniture markets this week buying stock for Beaman & Monk Bros. They returned Wednesday night.

Watch out for the opening of the "Matrimonial Bureau" and "Beauty Parlor" at Bynum School, Greene County and then come see how people are made "pretty" and then married off.

We especially invite the ladies to see our spring and summer line of dress goods. We are just back from northern markets where the latest possible things were purchased.—D. F. & R. O. Lang.

Mr. B. A. Joyner, was, as has been his usual custom for some several months, a visitor to Wilson Sunday. He was also a visitor there again Wednesday night but of course he had other business this time.

We especially invite the ladies of this entire section to call and see our display of spring and summer dress goods before buying elsewhere. We have all the latest in Tango and other goods.—W. M. Lang Co.

Note the change in the advertisement of D. Lesofsky in this issue. Only a few more days in which to get such rare bargains in merchandise, as all goods not sold by first of next week will be shipped away.

Miss Venessa Smith of Greenville spent Monday night in Farmville with relatives and left Tuesday for Raleigh accompanied by Mrs. B. S. Smith. They went up to take in a play in that city Tuesday night.

Miss Geneva Franklin, of Baltimore, came in Monday to be with Mrs. J. Wells Smith, for another season. Miss Franklin is well known to our people, having been with Mrs. Smith for several seasons, and her many friends are glad to know that she will be here again this season.

Read the display advertisement of D. F. & R. O. Lang in this issue and call and see their stock of seasonable merchandise. They have an assortment most any one can choose from and be well pleased.

Among those of Farmville Lodge Knights of Pythias who attended the District meeting at Kinston Wednesday night of this week and enjoyed the hospitality of that thriving, beautiful city, were Mr. H. H. McLean, District Deputy, and Messrs. McD. Horton, E. L. Barrett, W. L. Joyner, J. W. Moye, R. A. Bynum and G. A. Rouse.

Again we wish to call your attention to the advertisement of that progressive, old and strong Insurance Co.—the "Home Life", which appears in this issue. It is a pleasure to note the testimonials of the living policy holders and also of the beneficiary whose husband was a policy holder. The company lives up to its reputation of treating its policy holders right and its beneficiaries the same way. Read the advertisement and go talk to Mr. H. L. Humphrey about it.

"BUY IT AT HOME"

We Call

YOUR special attention to our window display of Roller Top and Flat Top Desk.

Both sanitary and box base, also a nice desk for your typewriter, and chairs of all description for the office. See our line before you buy.

Beaman & Monk Bros.,
The Big Store, - :- - Farmville, N. C.

Sold by J. M. WHELESS Druggist, - :- - Farmville, N. C.

Happiness. Half the world is on the wrong scent in the pursuit of happiness. They think it consists in having and getting and in being served by others. It consists in giving and serving others.—Henry Drummond.

YOU can accomplish much through saving a little out of each pay.

The seemingly little dimes and nickels will soon grow to surprising and delightful proportions, and your small beginning will pave the way to a comfort giving bank account.

This Bank will help you, Ask us about it to-day

THE BANK OF FARMVILLE
FARMVILLE, N. C.

GET That Million Dollar Look BY BUYING A

ROYAL Tailored Suit

FROM US.

T. L. & W. J. TURNAGE CO.