On Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Christian Church there will be a lecture on "Missions" by Miss Ella Nunn of New Bern, N. C. All are cordially invited to hear her. Especially the ladies of the Missionary Societies of the town and community.

Miss Annie Laura Lang, who is attending A. C. C. at Wilson, spent Easter here with her parents. She was accompanied by two of her class mates, as did also Miss Henrietta Moye, who was accompanied by class mates.

Water mains for Farmville's water plant are being placed on the principle streets of the town and at an early date the plant will be installed. It of course takes a little time, but Farmville is going to be a city of much note yet. Just watched it grow.

The sympathy of the town and community is extended Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beaman in the death of their little 11 months old son, Thomas Chester, which occurred Thursday afternoon, April 16th. The little one lived only a few days after being taken.

The play "Miss Fearless & Co." rendered by the "Class of 1914" of Farmville High school at the opera house Thursday night was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. Each member of caste acted her part well and is to be commended for the great hit made.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Beaman, Misses Carrie Elzey, Mayo Stringfellow, Sarah Martin, Alienne Wiggins, and Messrs. C. R. Townsend, C. S. Whittlesay and J. H. Darden, were guests at the home of Mrs. Beaman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Lassiter, in Snow Hill Easter Sunday.

report however that upon examination there were no main bones broken.

In some cities and towns they are having "newcomers" day to welcome new residents and make them feel at home. The idea is a good one. The city which treats its newcomers hospitably will not lack for newcomers.

The case of State against S. M. Pollard for the murder of Farmville's Chief of Police T. H. Smith, Saturday night, Jan. 17th, will be tried in Greenville next week, commencing Monday, the 20th. Nearly all of Farmville and about half of the township has been summoned as witnesses. This will no doubt be one of the hardest fought cases ever tried in Pitt County.

Mr. L. W. Godwin, the clever and efficient E. C. R. R. agent here, left Wednesday morning for Weldon to attend the marriage of his brother, Mr. V. D. Godwin, to a Miss Pope of that city, which occurred Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. Upon the arrival of the bridal party at the home of the groom in Williamston, they were met by another brother, Mr. B. C. Godwin, an Ensign of the U. S. Navy, and his bride, which of course was quite a surprise to all. The later mentioned brother, who is off on furlough, hailed from the U. S. battleship Boston, stationed at Rhode Island, and stationed in Williamston.

You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health. It has benefited thousands and thousands of weak, ailing women in its past half century of wonderful success, and it will do the same for you. You can't make a mistake in taking

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 4, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything." Begin taking Cardui today. Sold by all dealers.

It's Pleasant to

YES—Sometimes it is—but look out when the "BUMP" COMES.

A man may go on quite a long while spending every dollar he earns, and have great time doing it, but eventually, "thorns" will show.

The "rainy-day" is bound to come sooner or later, when mis-spent dimes and dollars would come in mighty good.

The time to throw off the spending habit is now—start by depositing just a little each week in this bank, and see how much more comfortable and independent you will feel as the habit grows and your dimes and dollars multiply.
