One Dollar the year-In advance.

Entered in the Post Office at Farm ville, N. C., as second class mail matter.

FRIDAY, MAR. 19, 1915.

Should the article elsewhere in this issue headed "Thoughts of an Idle Hour" by Maj. F. W. Barber, hit any of our readers, we hope it will help to guard their tongues from this terrible habit. We could each retire at of March remind one of I of night feeling better if during the Cannon? day we would make it a rule to speak of others as we would they speak of us. Oftimes a happy life is shadowed by the awful themselves. habit of gossip. Halter thy tongue that it speak not evil of thy neighbor.

Fashion has decreed that women must reduce in weight in order to wear the latest gowns. What a calamity for those who cannot reduce, and yet will not wear an out of date garment!

The handsomest, keenest and most brilliant man in this community owes us a dollar on subscription, and we are expecting him to favor us with an early call. (That ought to bring 'em all flirting around in the shadows.

A. local calamity howler had the audacity to come into our office yesterday and open up with his customary oration on "hard times." We permitted him to execute a masterly retreat.

American women are wearing military frocks this season, and American men are trying to steer as clear of European "fashions" as honor and common sense will permit.

Manufacturers are known the world over by the labels on their goods, and wide awake merchants are known by their ads in the local paper. Are you advertising?

Deposit a dollar in any bank and it will draw 4 per cent interest. Invest it in 52 issues of this paper and it will yield 1,000 per cent before the year is up. Bank with us.

lí this country must be forced into war we expect our public office holders to be the first to enlist. Then we mere mortals can bask in the sunshine of their patriotism.

Here's a bully good idea! Let's have a law requiring every sen ator and congressman who votes for war to enlist and go to the frount. Then there'll be no war.

If the rest of the European countries get the itch and jump into the scrap, we won't have to bother about the immigration question for the next few weeks.

A wise man once had a dollar which he wanted to invest where it would bring him the greatest possible returns. We got it.

Paying the income tax is a distinction few of us crave.

It's easy to quit and just as easy to stay quit.

Drug users have suddenly sprung into prominence as a drug on the market.

The professional kicker kicks at everything in sight and dents nothing but himself.

If a man talks too much he is a gossip. If he falks too little he is a clam. Poor man!

It may be true that there is nothing new under the sun, but there are a lot of funny things

"Letting good enough alone" is all right, but it never gets you to the top of the ladder.

If you haven't that dollar you owe us handy, just bring around an ounce or two of wheat.

Too bad! Dear old congress quit and went home and we clean forgot to comment on the joyful-fact.

When a man wants a thing he wants it mighty bad, and when he don't want it at all he often
