Good! The Atlantic is between us.

Peace and plenty beats war and famine.

The Turk retains a death grip on his remaining tail feather.

Speak softly, and the world listens. Howl, and you get a kick.

When a young man gets fresh it is time to tickle him with a slave.

Say little, think much, and you will be heard when you speak.

The store that never advertises is easily recognized by its stock of cobwebs.

"Home, Sweet Home," is a popular song with marooned Americans abroad.

Good fortune is the lot of the average man. But some men are a long ways from average.

If unwilling to do it yourself, ask the other fellow. His courage may be greater than yours.

The man who never advertises is like the general who goes into battle without ammunition.

If you want to convert a man to better ways, appeal to his reason or his pocketbook—never to his conscience.

Some people spend so much money getting ready for a vacation they never have enough left to get there with.

When this war is over we may have to revise our immigration laws in order to check the inrush of marriageable maidens from abroad.

It will cost some ships as much as $10,000 in fees to pass through the Panama canal. We'd swim the old ditch for half the amount.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury
Mercury will destroy the delicate lining of the bladder and irritate the whole system which contract a permanent cure. The mercury enters the bladder through the urethra and is absorbed into the system. It is taken from the bladder through the urethra and is absorbed into the system. CLEAN UP!

Now Let us give the war a rest, the rout, the siege, the sally, and gayly shed our coat and vest, and go and clean the alley! Let's gather up the dogs and cats which have this life departed, and let tin cans and bricks and hats off to the dump, be carted. In winter you may voice your views, which you believe important, and base long sermons on the news, but in the Spring you'd orn't. Then every able-bodied man should whoop the "Clean Up" slogan, and chase the old tomato can, the castoff hat and brogan. So let us clear our bulging brows of trifling thoughts and narrow, and gather up the old dead cows, and work the rake and harrow. The rubbish left by careless men, and lazy human cheeses, will bring a host of germs again, and they'll bring punk diseases. And forty billion flies will come, as many microbes bearing, and round our weary heads they'll hum, and keep us busy swearing. Clean up! Clean up! On every block let all the workers rally! No man should stand around and talk until he's cleaned his alley!

—Uncle Watt Mason.
