Missionary Study Class Meets.

The Missionary Study Class, of the M. E. church, held a very interesting meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Rollins. The leader, Mrs. I. L. Morgan, read a part of the thirty third chapter of Deut., as the scripture lesson, after which Mrs. J. W. Lovelace offered a belress to millions. And a poor dovil very touching prayer. The class like me could not marry a girl with then entered into the regular very touching prayer. The class work, and Mrs. Morgan, in a very attractive and instructive manner lead us into green pastures of missionary knowledge of pioneer days.

A very interesting paper on the life, of Peter Carter's right of pioneer fame was prepared by Mrs. J. H. Harris. It is indeed interesting to note the changes since those days and the rapid as, after telephoning, he headed for Strides that have been made in his office. Queer duck, indeed! What our civilization, and when we think of the important part the missionary pastor has played in one clee laid down the rules; it was it all, our hearts go out in gratitude to God for their lives, and their labors of love.

When the lesson was over Mrs. Morgan asked Mrs. I. W. Parker to offer a closing prayer that all might have a closer chation with God by bringing Him nearer to more points of life and more grades of men.

Thus an hour of pleasant study and exchange of instructive thought was spent. Then the hostess assisted by her daughter, served a most elegant fruit salad and cake, which was very much enjoyed by all.

Even peace has its advantages. Let's hang onto it.
