

It Pays To Advertise
Through The Columns of
The Farmville Enterprise
IT REACHES - THE PEOPLE

Farmville Enterprise

Merchants! Get Wise
Let Us Write You an Ad.
and we'll open your eyes
WITH INCREASED BUSINESS

The Enterprise Publishing Co., Publishers.

Subscription $1 a Year in Advance.

G. A. ROUSE, Editor.

VOL. VI

FARMVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, SEPT. 10, 1915

NO. 10

SEVEN THOUSAND VOLUNTEERS

To Teach Without Pay in the "Moonlight Schools." Expected to Reach 75,000 Illiterate Adults.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 5.—The finishing touches are being put on the series of twelve lessons each in reading, writing and arithmetic that are to be the foundation for the work to be done in the "moonlight schools" that are to be held in all parts of the State during October for the special purpose of relieving the State of its disgracefully low standing among the States of the Union in the matter of the percentage of illiteracy.

About 7,000 teachers in the State have pledged themselves to render services without pay for moonlight school work and it is estimated that something like 75,000 illiterate people will be induced to attend the moonlight schools.

$15,000,000 To Help Cotton Raisers

Washington, Sept. 4.—Formal orders designating the Federal reserve banks of Richmond, Atlanta and Dallas as government depositories were signed today at the Treasury department and preparations made for dispatching from United States treasuries $15,000,000 in gold to be used in aiding cotton producers.

Each bank is to receive $5,000,000 and the shipments probably will start tonight on their journey.

Mrs. I. F. Puryear Entertains.

Last Friday evening from 8:30 to 11:30 Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Puryear delightfully entertained a number of friends in honor of their sister, Miss Ruth Everett, of Washington. The guest were met at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Puryear and ushered into the spacious sitting room where they all engaged in Progressive Rook, which was greatly enjoyed by all. Miss Mae Barrett won the first prize, a lovely white crepe de chene handkerchief, which she very charmingly and gracefully presented to the guest of honor. Mr. Harvey Turnage won the consolation prize. A delightful fruit course and mints were served. As the midnight hour approached all too soon each one reluctantly took their departure, declaring Mr. and Mrs. Puryear charming entertainers. Those present were:

Mr. R. R. Newton, Miss Mae Barrett, Mr. Chester Smith, Miss Marie Christman, Mr. Harvey Turnage, Miss Annie Laurie Lang, Dr. H. P. Mosley, Miss Rosa Moore, Mr. Hubert Joyner, Miss Mamie Ruth Pollard, Mr. Carl Tyson, Miss Minnie Thorne, Dr. Lee Carr, Miss Sue Thorne, Mr. Alex Bynum, Miss Ruth Everett.

ACROSTIC

My! that saddest sounding token,
And mixed with brizey tears,
Raining down whenever spoken,
Joy ends, then comes our fears.
O'er every land, on every ocean,
Reigos a King o'er low and high;
In every heart it must be spoken,
Even this sad word—Good-bye.

—J. Dale.

Whenever You Get a General Tonic
Take "Quinine."
The Old Standard "Quinine" is a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Digestive and Nervous Systems, Purifies the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

LET EVERY VOTER IN FARMVILLE AND FALKLAND TOWNSHIPS TURN OUT ON TUESDAY, SEPT. 27, AND CAST THEIR BALLOT FOR GOOD ROADS--WE CANNOT AFFORD TO LET THIS OPPORTUNITY TO BETTER CONDITIONS FOR OURSELVES AND OUR COMMUNITIES SLIP BY US.

Mrs. Joyner at Home.

On Thursday morning of last week from 10 to 12 o'clock, Mrs. Fannie L. Joyner delightfully entertained in honor of her niece, Miss Carlotta Meyborn, of Kinston. Mrs. Joyner received the guests at the door, and invited them into the parlor, which was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. They were served with grape juice punch, after which progressive rook was enjoyed. In which game Miss Marie Christman was the lucky contestant and was awarded the prize, a dainty crepe de chine handkerchief which she in time presented to the guest of honor, Miss Meyborn. After the game a delicious salad course was served. At the noon hour the guest departed declaring Mrs. Joyner a very charming hostess. Those enjoying Mrs. Joyner's hospitality were: Miss Meyborn, of Kinston, Misses Annie Larie Lang, Tabitha De Visconti, Ruth Ruffin, Beulah Keel, Mamie Ruth Pollard, Vera Cox, of Winterville, Marie Christman, Rosa Moore, Mesdames P. E. Jones, Ben. A. Joyner, C. S. Rountree, J. L. Shackelford and R. H. Gray, of Scotland Neck.

Mrs. Lovelace Entertains.

Mrs. J. W. Lovelace entertained the Woman's Missionary Society at its regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon.

After the devotional exercises led by the president, the following literary program was given:

"Facts of Foreign Work we should know," Mrs. J. W. Lovelace.

"Growth of Womans Work in Foreign Fields," Mrs. R. A. Fields.

"What are the Signs of Waiting in China," Mrs. B. A. Joyner.

The program was concluded with a letter from Miss Nabel Head, Secretary of Womans Work of the Council, emphasizing the needs in foreign fields and urging the women of the church for a more liberal offering.

The business of the society was then taken up. After the reports of the officers the annual Thanksgiving Bazaar was discussed.

At the last meeting of the society it was decided to make a free will offering, with which to purchase plates for the church, it was very gratifying to find that the offering was more than the amount needed for same.

The business being closed, the hostess assisted by Mrs. Y. E. Wright and Mrs. J. L. Morgan served a delicious ice course.

You don't need to apologize for all your flies when your neighbors drop in to see you. They know as well as you do where they come from.

Girls are not always as fast as they paint themselves.

Every Farmer, Business Man and Laborer Should Join Hands in this Great Movement for Good And Go Out to the Polls of the 27th of September and Say by their Vote That No More Bad Roads Shall Be Tolerated in Farmville and Falkland Townships.--The State Will Commend Your Action And You Will Be Benefitted a Thousand Fold.--Activity on Your Part Now Means Good Roads For You to Travel over in the Near Future

Mr. C. L. Hardy, of Maury, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. Ivey Smith, of Arthur, was in town Thursday.

Supt. H. H. McLean went to Goldsboro Tuesday.

Mr. T. E. Barrow, of Greene, was in town Thursday.

Mr. Lester Barrett has gone to Wake Forest College.

Mr. W. A. Waldson, of Route 1, was in town Thursday.

Mr. J. E. Joyner, of Arthur, was in town Thursday.

Mr. M. Cohen, of Snow Hill, paid us a visit Wednesday.

Mr. Arthur Joyner, of Arthur, is spending a few days here.

Mr. Willie Wilson, of Arthur, was a visitor here this week.

Town Commissioners met in regular session Tuesday night.

Mr. R. E. Willoughby, of Arthur, sold tobacco here Thursday.

Miss Henrietta Moye has gone to Liberty to accept a position as teacher.

Mr. Henry Metedialh, of New Bern, spent Tuesday night in Farmville.

Mrs. Annie Lang spent Wednesday night with relatives in Greenville.

Miss Francis Bagwell of Greenville, is visiting Mrs. Charles R. Townsend.

Mrs. Nan Tucker, of Ballards X Roads, was a Farmville visitor Wednesday.

Miss Agnes Moore returned home Sunday from a week's stay at Seven Springs.

Equip your Ford with a Husling Stabilizer, makes it steer as easy as a Packard. For particulars, see S. N. GULLEY, Agent, The Enterprise office.

Mr. Oscar Speight, of Winterville, was on our Market Tuesday selling tobacco.

Mr. A. C. Bynum, one of Greene county's best farmers, was in town Thursday.

Mr. W. A. Shackelford, of near Hookerton, was in town Tuesday, with a big lot of tobacco.

Mrs. A. B. Deans, of Wilson, is spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Ben. A. Joyner.

Messrs. J. A. Corbett and Bill Harrell, of Wilson, paid Farmville a business visit Wednesday.

Mrs. E. C. Beaman and daughter, Mary Alice, are on an extended visit to relatives in Snow Hill.

Mrs. Ruth Lindsey and daughter, Alice Ruth, of Bethel, are visiting Mrs. W. J. Rollins this week.

Mr. W. E. Joyner, the laundryman, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. V. Edge, in Rocky Mount, this week.

Dr. Paul E. Jones and wife spent Sunday in Bethel visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jones.

The Third series of the Farmville Building & Loan Association will open for sale of stock October 1st.

Mrs. C. R. Townsend entertained a number of friends at her home on Pine Street Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Crittendon and Mr. A. B. Deans, of Wilson, were visitors in Farmville Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Parker, the photographer, will be at his Farmville Gallery again Sept. 16th and 17th. Better let him make your picture this time, for it will be some time before he will be here again. Delay is dangerous.

The J. B. McCrary Co., of Atlanta, are going ahead putting in sewerage. They are now laying pipe on Belcher street.

The farmers seem to be getting very satisfactory prices for their tobacco and the breaks at all of the houses continue large.

Messrs. W. Leslie Smith, Wiley Dildy, T. W. Lang and T. E. Joyner went to Goldsboro Wednesday on Mr. Smith's Buick.

Misses Louise Moye and Ada Gray Dixon left Tuesday morning to resume their studies at the Atlantic Christian College at Wilson.

Mrs. Maud Warren and daughter, Miss Eleanor, went to Raleigh Tuesday morning, where Miss Eleanor will attend Meredith College.

Miss Carmen Flanagan, who has been at Montrose for the past year or more on account of ill health, returned Thursday afternoon.

NOTICE!—Now is the time of year to get the Best Cement Work done. So get it while it's cheap.—E. L. Howard, The Concrete Man.

Misses Harriet Tilgman, Margaret Doane, Bessie Clark, Ella Hackney and Mrs. Sydnor Borden, of Wilson, were Farmville visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. S. J. Parrott and daughter Ethel, after spending several days here visiting the home of her brother, Mr. B. L. Dail, have returned to Kinston.

Messrs. Turnage & Smith are having a large attendance each night at the Pastime Theatre. They are showing some very fine pictures. Don't fail to go Friday night as they will have something special.

Several from Farmville went to Kinston Thursday to witness the races. Among those going were Messrs. W. A. and J. O. Pollard, B. Streeter Sheppard, R. Carr, J. W. Parker, R. A. Fields, G. E. Moore, J. T. Harris and B. O. Turnage.

"The Wining of Barbara Worth," a dramatization of Harold Bell Wright's great story, interpreted by a strong company, aided by novel scenic and electrical effects, is to be played at The Lyceum Theatre at Wilson, Tuesday, Sept. 21. It is thought that with this ample notice, a good many will arrange to attend from here.

The Farmville tobacco market has had heavy sales all this week and today every house was filled almost to its capacity. The prices are as high as any market, as our warehousemen are pushing every pile to the highest limit. Every farmer in this country can feel assured that they will never lose a penny by bringing their tobacco to Farmville, and in many cases will make money by hauling it here.

Farmville continues to grow. Mr. Jno. T. Thorne has just completed a large residence on North Main street, and Mr. T. E. Joyner

PORTSMOUTH WIN SECOND HALF IN VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 7.—Portsmouth won the second half of the Virginia baseball league season yesterday by defeating Norfolk in the morning game. There will be a post-season series with Rocky Mount, winner of the first half for championship of the league.

The series will began on Wednesday when the two teams meet in Rocky Mount. Seven games will be played and the winner of four will be given the championship pennant. Rocky has won the first two games.

County Federation Meets.

The Pitt County Federation of Woman's Clubs met in regular session in the court house in Greenville Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. At this meeting plans were discussed for the County Federation Fair, which will be held in Greenville on the 17th and 18th of November. The proceeds from this fair will constitute a Loan Fund for the education of deserving girls of the county at the East Carolina Teachers Training School.

Those attending of the Ladies Magazine Club, of Farmville, were Mrs. W. J. Raspberry, Pres.; Mrs. W. M. Lang, Mrs. Fannie L. Joyner, Mrs. Ben. A. Joyner and Miss Venesia Morrill.

Don't expectorate on any sidewalk, street car or on any floor. It is a detestable habit and breeds disease; it is also against the law.

is also erecting a nice home on the same street. Dr. Paul E. Jones will soon begin building a handsome residence on his property on Main street, and Mr. W. C. Askew is planning to begin the erection of five modern residences in a few weeks on Church street. We also learn that Mr. T. W. Lang expects to build a handsome residence on his lot on Contentnea street soon.

The Enterprise bespeaks the sentiments of this entire community when it extends to Mesdames G. A. Rouse and G. M. Holden, of Farmville, its profoundest sympathy in the loss by death of their aged father, Mr. W. H. Dail, of Snow Hill, which occurred Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the effect of a stroke of paralysis on Friday of last week. A large number from here attended the funeral which took place in the cemetery at Snow Hill Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. In the death of Mr. Dail, Snow Hill, Greene county and the state loses one of its most valued citizens. No man in his home town, county or state enjoyed a larger circle of true friends, which was attested by the great number of prominent families represented at the funeral to pay their last, though sad, tributes of respect. Of the immediate family, Mr. Dail is also survived by his wife and seven other children, viz: Mrs. Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse, of Greenville; Mrs. J. W. Dixon, of Willow Greene; Mrs. P. S. Boyd, of Mooresville; W. H. Dail, Jr., of Charlotte; G. F. M. Dail, of City Point, Va.; and Miss Minnie Best and Fred Dail, of Snow Hill.

To Drive Out Malaria
And Build Up The System
Take The Old Standard GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents