WE ARE NOT JEALOUS.

The Reflector thinks that we are opposed to Pitt county voting bonds for a County Hospital because we are jealous of Greenville. We are frank to admit that in the event the county builds a hospital, Greenville is the proper place to locate it.

We would like to see a modern hospital at Greenville, but we are opposed to bonding Pitt county to build it. We note the Reflector states that it will only increase the taxes three and one-half cents on the hundred dollars; but how about maintaining this hospital after it is built?

Is anyone in position to know that it will be self-sustaining? Are the farmers and tax payers of Pitt county demanding that the county build a hospital? Will the farmers throughout Pitt county be benefitted to the extent of being willing to be mortgaged to pay for it?

Some one has said that this hospital will be a great saving to the farmers of Pitt county, and the citizens of Greenville. We would like to know what percent of the farmers will be benefitted by such an institution? Is it not true that the farmers living in various sections of Pitt county can be taken to good hospitals elsewhere about as quick as they could be taken to Greenville? How long does it take the citizens and farmers, of Ayden, Bethel, Grimesland, Grifton, Fountain and Farmville to reach a hospital when necessary? How much more does it cost to go to the hospitals in other cities, already built and equipped (not by taxation) but by private capital, than it would to go to a County Hospital at Greenville? When we sum the whole situation up, we will find that the citizens and farmers of Pitt county, with the exception of those living in a radius of a few miles of (continued on page 3)

The BIG Warehouse ON MAIN STREET

A Fireproof Warehouse and Townsend to Push Your Tobacco Insures and Protects Your Interest at All Times

The largest Floor Space in the State under one roof; gives you a perfect light. The Sales-floor being so large without any posts or obstructions, can care for the biggest crowds and not be crowded. Our opening sale was three times as large as we expected and prices were as good as all expected. More buyers have come on the market and the warehouseman don't have to buy so much, which gives you a firm market.

Appreciating your patronage in the past, I earnestly solicit a continuance of same, and I promise to do as I have done before—push each and every pile of your tobacco to the top of the market.

Hoping to see you at Townsend's Warehouse with your first load

To Our Friends and Customers:—

It is with pleasure that we can announce that Farmville has the best set of Buyers we have ever had, and they all seem to be anxious for the weed.

Our sales have increased daily since the opening and prices show right much improvement. Our brakes are averaging around the 10 cent mark. Very little tobacco is being sold besides the first primings, and all our customers are well pleased with prices. We look for a steady steady advance as the weather gets cooler.

Again Friends and Customers:—

We are better prepared to push your tobacco than most of warehousemen, as we have NO DRUMMERS to pay. Instead of paying your neighbor to drum you, we are going to spend that money on our floor pushing our customers tobacco.

We mean what we say, so we ask you to try us with your next load, and you will be sticking to us until the last is sold.

Yours to SERVE,
