

RED SOX ARE WINNERS OF THE AMERICAN LEAGUE 1915 PENNANT

CHAMPIONSHIP WON BY BOSTON RED SOX

Hub Team Is Winner of the American League Pennant

Manager Bill Carrigan Lands His Machine on Top After Pretty Fight—Credit Also Given to Star Outfielders.

(By CHARLES H. CROWELL.) After an exciting struggle as the most enthusiastic baseball fan could possibly wish for, the Boston Red Sox finally won the American league championship for 1915. Up to almost the last game it was anybody's race, but few games separating the leader and follower.

To Bill Carrigan belongs the credit. His earnest, aggressive and at times quarrelsome methods were of vast importance in the long grind. The Red Sox got away to a poor start owing to sickness and injury, and it was not until the season was well advanced that the players got together, assumed leadership and once out in front they did so tenaciously.

Ken Kephau was the star. His batting average was .340, and he was the only player in the league to hit .300 or better. He was the only player in the league to hit .300 or better. He was the only player in the league to hit .300 or better.

PHILLIES WIN OUT IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

Much Credit Due to Manager Moran and Pitcher Alexander.

Talented Team, Not Given Chance at Beginning of Season, Captures Pennant—Praises for Gravelk, Lary and Others.

(By CHARLES H. CROWELL.) To Pat Moran and Grover Cleveland Alexander belongs the honor of leading the Philadelphia team to the National League pennant this year. For his guidance and sure judgment in crucial situations and to Alexander for his pitching, the Phillies are grateful.

Gravelk—Praised. A large part of the credit for winning the flag belongs to Clarence Gravelk, who was named MVP.

IDEA IN ORNAMENTAL POSTS

To Maintain Proper Alignment Property Owner Suggests Them Over the Gutters

In planning to place a pair of ornamental pillars on opposite sides of a roadway intersecting a thoroughfare in front of his grounds, a property owner found that the posts would be out of proper alignment if erected back of the curb line as had been intended. To overcome this difficulty...

AMERICAN JOCKEY WINS

The American jockey Archibald headed the list of winning riders in the summer meeting at Hagerston, Berlin, recently concluded, with seventeen firsts in forty-eight races. The victories of the American rider were very popular and in racing at least there was no trace of anti-American feeling.

HOME TOWN HELPS

PRUNE TREES IN SUMMER

Farmers Trim in Fall and Spring in Order to Check Wood Growth.

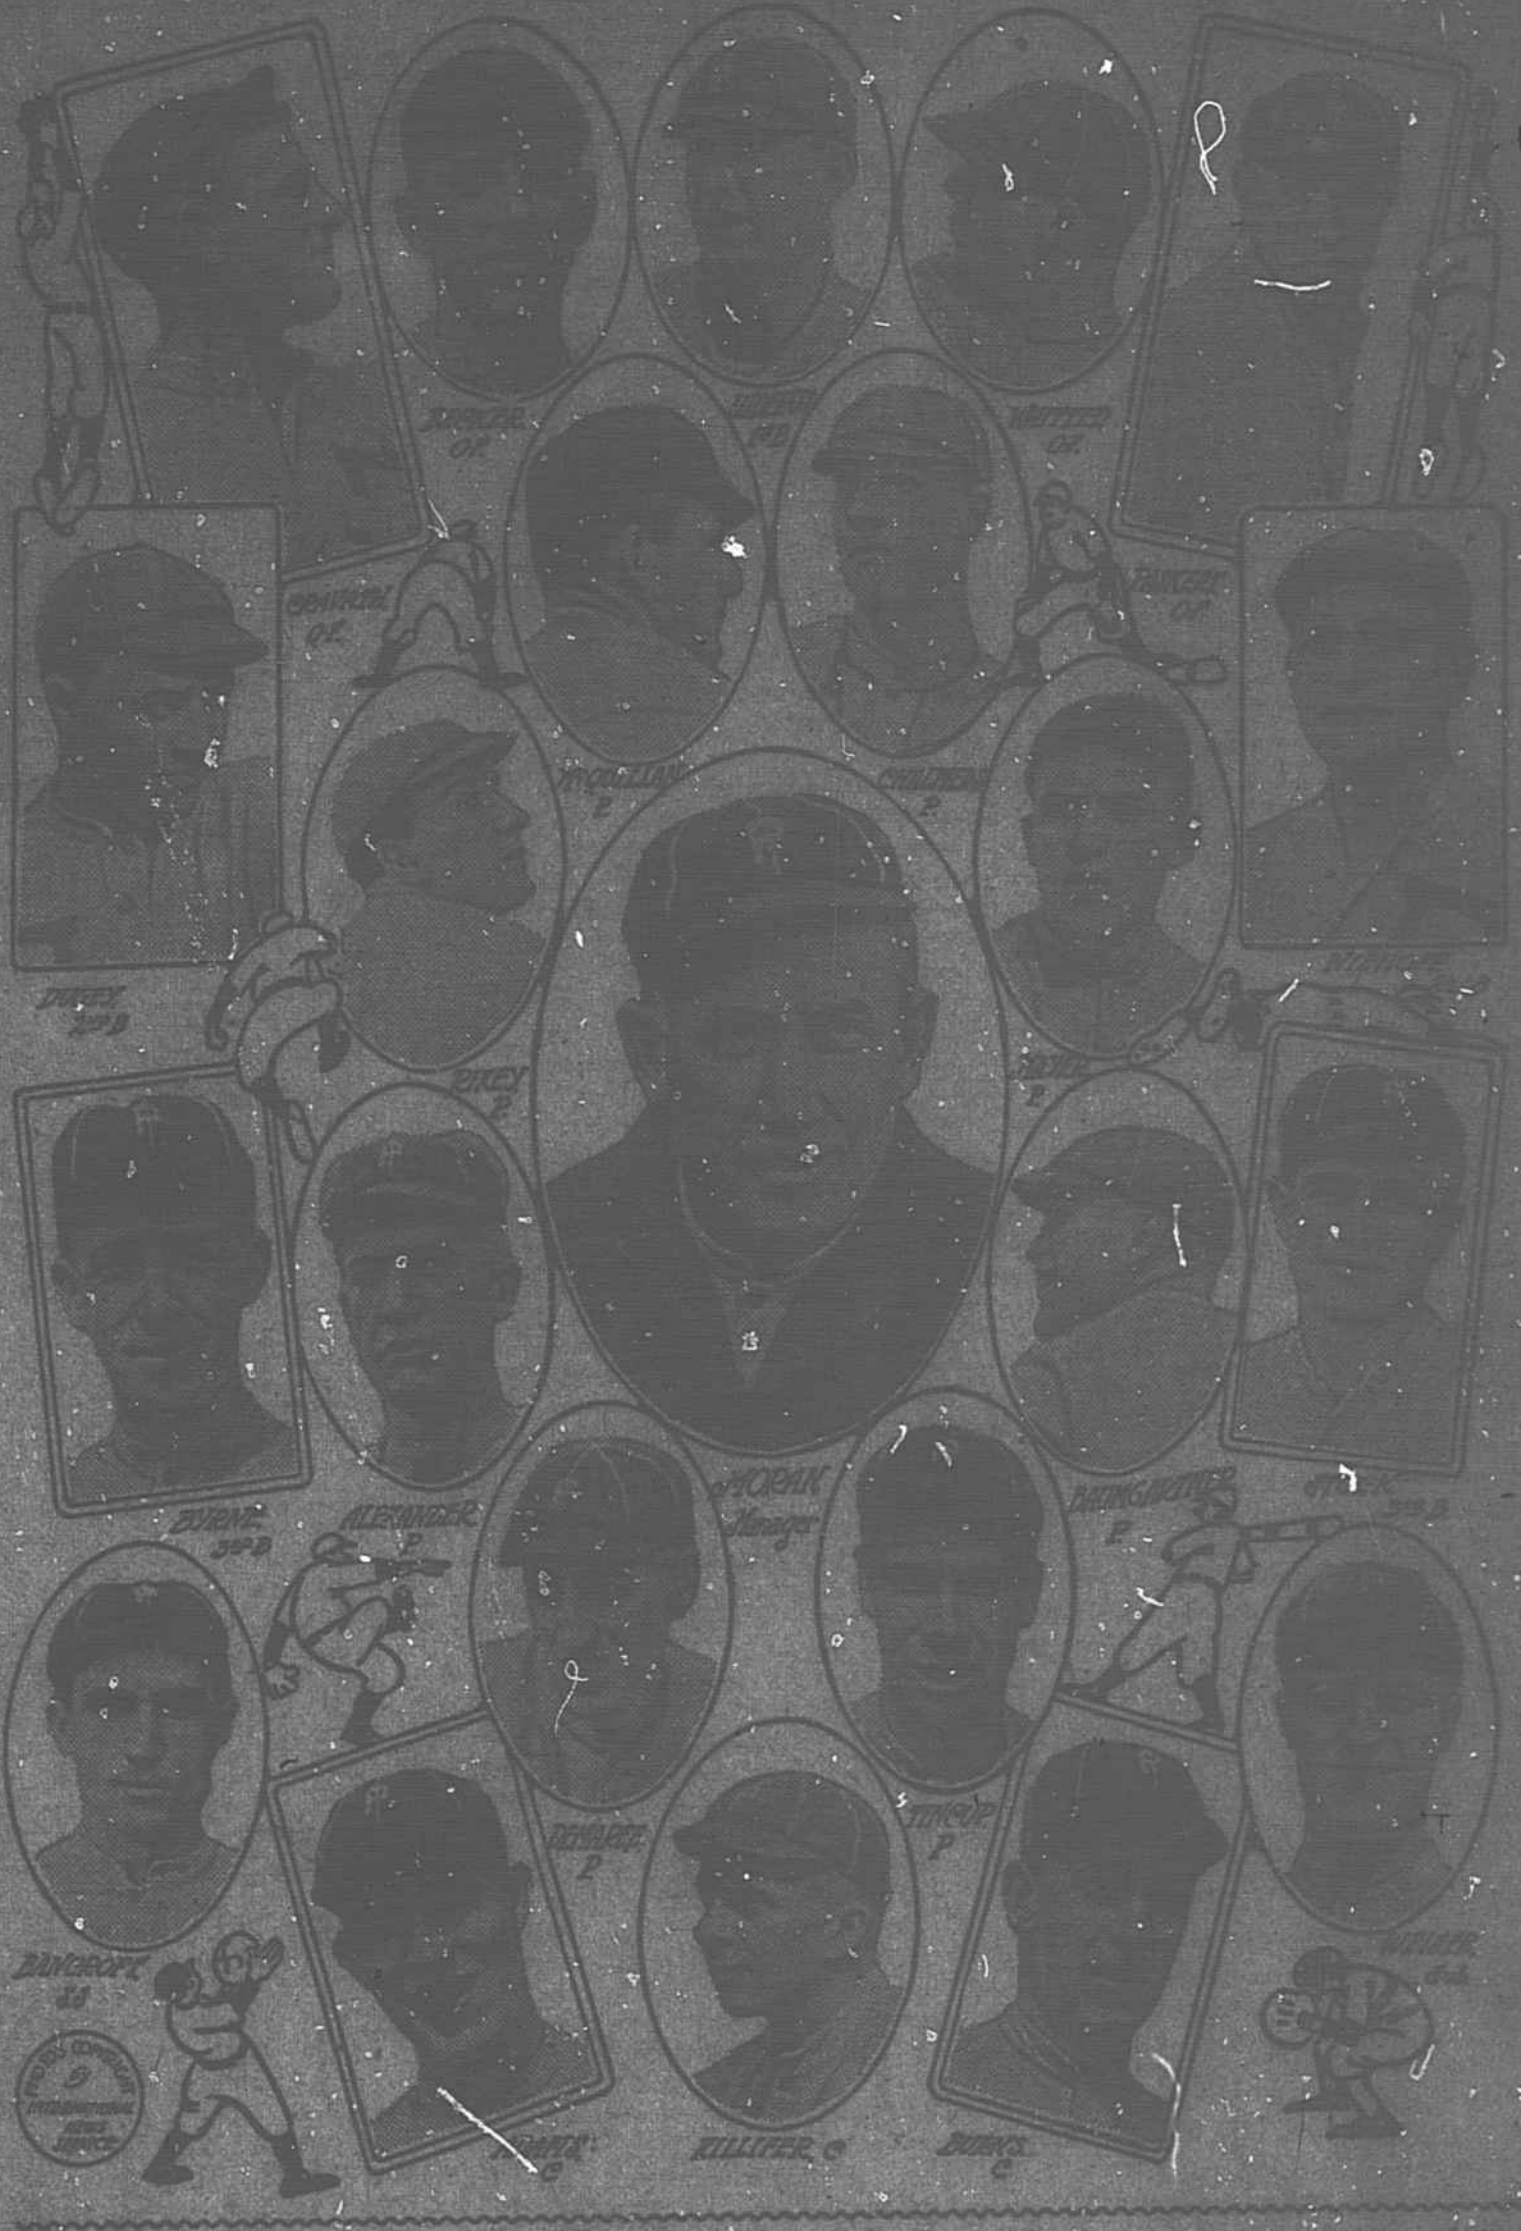

Summer pruning, as contrasted with the regular practice, is the pruning of trees while in foliage. Its influence upon the tree in many respects is opposite to winter pruning. The latter stimulates wood growth, while the former tends to lessen wood growth. As a rule, any practice that checks wood growth tends to induce fruitfulness.

CITY MANAGER PLAN GROWS

The Commission Form of City Government Being Carried a Step Forward.

Though the so-called commission form of municipal government had its origin in Galveston, Iowa has done much to popularize the idea. The Des Moines plan of commission rule, which is a modification of the Galveston plan, has been much advertised.
