Call at W. M. Lang Co.'s store to see those new silk waists.

After spending some time in Rocky Mount with relatives Misses Margaret and Marie Christman returned home Sunday.

Death of Mrs. Ivey Smith.

Our community was greatly shocked and saddened Wednesday when the news was heralded that Mrs. Ivey Smith, of Bellair, was no more. She was a woman of Christian virtues and noble attributes and made friends of all with whom she came in contact. The remains were laid to rest on Thanksgiving Day, a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends witnessing the obsequies. The Enterprise joins with many friends in extending sincerest sympathy to the bereaved and heartbroken ones in this, their hour of sorrow. Truly a good woman has gone to her reward.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE.

Well Known Throughout The State.

C. L. Haubert, of Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, having been recalled to Greenville, following the success of his late visit, as made known to the afflicted friends, can be seen at Hotel Proctor Wednesday and Thursday, December 6th and 7th. Interested parties can consult him free of charge. The combination truss, as used and approved by the United States government, will not only retain any rupture in its proper place, but will close the opening through which the bowels escape on the average case in a short time. No leg-straps to gall and chafe. Clean and durable. Examination and advice free.

Have you noticed those new suits that have just arrived at W. M. Lang Co.'s store?
