BREAD FOR ALL

Experts say we have the greatest wheat crop ever.

The total acreage of wheat in 60,000,000—a gigantic wheat farm.

No less than 350,000,000 bushels of wheat have been produced in the United States this year.

At the rate of five bushels to the barrel, this colossal crop of wheat will make 190,000,000 barrels of flour.

Baked into bread, this flour would provide not less than a loaf a day to 100,000,000 persons for a year.

NAVAL AND MILITARY TOASTS

To Britain's sheet anchor—her ships.

May good leaders always have good followers.

British arms and British hands to use them.

May no true son of Neptune shrink from his gun.

May our vessels be indeed hardships to our foes.

Honor and the sword; may they never be parted.

Here's to the tar that sticks like pitch to his duty.

May the brow of the brave never want a laurel wreath.

Every soldier a pleasant halt, and every rogue a long halter.

EVEN THE GRAVY WAS TOUGH

Man Who Bought Piece of Steak is Shown by Butcher Where He Has Nothing to Kick About.

William Alden Smith of Michigan, replied in the course of a dispute: "Everything goes by comparison. The man, for instance, who thinks his own condition almost unendurable has only to look about him to find some other man who is far worse. Take the case of one customer and his butcher."

"Say," said the customer, "that last piece of steak I bought of you must have come from a steer old enough to vote."

"Was it tough?"

"Was it tough?" the man reiterated.

"Well, I should say it was. I could scarcely cut it."

"Oh, is that all? Well, you should have heard Riley kicking a day or two ago. He bought a piece over to the new market, and he said it was so tough he couldn't get his fork into the gravy."

A Friendly Tip.

"You will be rich and famous some day," said the fortune teller.

"That's queer," replied the client.

"I'm only a shopgirl. How can I ever become rich and famous?"

"The future is not clear on that point," answered the seeress, "but—hum—the movies offer great opportunities nowadays to young women who have nothing to recommend them but good looks."

By Contrast.

"It's a good idea to read a little poetry every day to offset the hard realities of life."

"No doubt. What are you reading now?"

"Dante's 'Inferno.'"

"Hum! I shouldn't call that a cheerful work."

"Maybe not, but life looks pretty good to me after reading Dante's description of a possible hereafter."

Meekest Disclaimer.

"The minute I walked in here I knew you were a man of culture," said the visitor.

"Why so?" asked the pleased millionaire.

"Look at all the books about you!"

"Yes. They are pretty, but you mustn't give me too much credit."

"No?"

"The color scheme is my wife's."

IT STILL HAPPENS.

ACT QUICK---SAVE MONEY

We take this method of advising our customers and friends, who have tobacco yet unsold in their packhouse, to get same ready and bring it on to

MONK'S WAREHOUSE

As early as possible.

Tobacco is selling as high with us now as could possibly be expected, and to wait much longer may mean a loss of money.
