Somebody's Dollars Will Do It—
Wonder if They'll Be Yours

By Bruce Dutton

I WILL tell you what will happen some night this winter in France. Some night when its cold and dark. There will be a rustling through the front line trench, where our boys stand guard. And a heavy laden Secretary will make his way along.

In his hands will be great steaming pots; in his pocket chocolate and cigarettes.

From one man to another he will go, passing a cup full of hot coffee to hands that tremble with the cold; bringing the comfort of a bit of sweet and a smoke.

Men will hail him cheerily, clapping him on the back; and when he has gone things will be a little easier in that trench because he has passed that way.

How much will it cost to make that trip, do you suppose? Counting the distance that the Secretary is paid, and the cost of the chocolate and the cigarettes and all?

Five dollars? Twenty-five dollars? I do not know.

But whether it is five dollars or twenty-five, I'd like to think that it is my five or twenty-five—wouldn't you? That some night when it's cold and lone some, my money and yours might send a Secretary out along that front line trench. Let's make up our minds that we are going to pay for a score of these trips. A score of the nights this winter shall be our nights.

—nights when the boys greet joyously the chocolate and cigarettes that our money provided; and are happier because our representative has passed.

United War Work Campaign For the Boys in the Service

SERVICE THAT WINS THE SOLDIER HEART MERCY MUNITIONS NEEDED IN TRENCHES

Fred Lockley, Y. M. C. A., Tells of the Gratitude of the Boys at the Front.

"One of the discoveries men are making over here," Fred Lockley, of the Y. M. C. A. and of Portland, Oregon, writes from London, "is that more pleasure can be had out of living than getting. Many a man who has spent money freely in the old days to buy pleasure is finding that he gets more pleasure over here by the spending of one's self in the service of others.

"A few months ago I went out with a fellow Y. M. C. A. secretary to hunt up 'out-of-the-way' detachments of troops. A stable guard here, a platoon machine gun company there, a platoon somewhere else. We carried our goods in an automobile. We had plenty of writing paper and envelopes for free distribution, and chocolate, sodas, chewing tobacco and smoking tobacco, cigarettes, razor blades, tooth paste and things of that kind for sale. American war service workers were busy everywhere. We found Salvation Army lassies making doughnuts for the boys and K. of C. secretaries giving help. Books furnished by the American Literary Association were to be seen at all sides.

"Hearing ring at a distance, we drove down the road and found a score or so of men at machine gun practice. The officer gave the men half an hour recess to buy goods.

"At another place we came in sight of a lieutenant drilling a platoon. I said to the lieutenant: 'How soon before you claim this company? We have Y. M. C. A. goods for sale.'

"He said: 'Right now, Sergeant, claims the company.'

"And ten seconds later the company was in line waiting to buy goods from one traveling Y. M. C. A. General is no name for it. 'The men can't do enough to show their gratitude.'

What Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, Fighting Aviator, Makes Stirring Appeal for Y. W. C. A.

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, who writes "Crazy On," says of the war work which the Y. W. C. A. is doing: "You at home cannot fight with your lives, but you can fight with your mercy. The Y. W. C. A. is offering you just this chance. It purchases the women's support tranches, which he behind the men's. It asks you to supply them with munitions of mercy that they may be passed on to us. We need such supplies badly. Give generously that we may the sooner defeat the Hun.

What Lieut. Dawson says of the Y. W. C. A. he might have said of all the national organizations which are coming together for the highest financial campaign that organizations have ever headed. All the $170,000,000 to be raised by the seventh great national organization the week of November 11 will be used to garrison and supply the support trenches behind the lines. They are the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council, Jewish Welfare Board, American Literary Association, War Camp Community Service and Salvation Army.

American girls in various uniforms mingle strangely with pictures of Britanny costumes in France. This American Y. W. C. A. has a hostess home in Britanny where the Signal Corps women live and a hut where the nurses make their beds. Both these centers are fitted with many of the comforts and conveniences of home.

"At a tea given at the nurses' hut one Saturday afternoon," writes Miss Mabel Warner, of Selma, Kansas, Y. W. C. A. worker there, "there was an odd gathering—one student, a bishop, a Presbyterian minister, a Roman Catholic priest, a doctor, an engineer, one civilian and myself."

Why You Should Give Twice What You Did Before

The government has fixed the sum needed for the care of the men in the Service at $170,000,000.

Unless Americans give twice as much as ever before our soldiers, sailors and marines in 1918 may not enjoy their

- 8,000 recreation buildings
- 1,000 miles of movie films
- 100 stage stars
- 5,000 athletic directors
- 2,000 libraries supplying 5,000,000 books
- 30 hospital homes
- 15,000 "Red Cross" societies
- Millions of dollars of home comforts

Give to maintain the morale that is winning the war now
