FOUND BOOKS DEEP DOWN IN DUG-OUTS

American Library Association Books
Sure Reach Soldiers, Says
Raymond Foadick

"I found the books of the American Library Association everywhere in France," says Raymond Foadick, chairman of the National Commission on Training Camp Activities, who has just returned from an extended trip overseas, during which he conducted a thorough investigation of the work being done by the various war work agencies.

"I found them in dugouts thirty or forty feet below ground, in cow-barns where shrapnel had blown parts of the roof away, as well as in the substantial huts and tents far back from the firing line.

"I have found them in hospitals and dressing stations; in scattered villages in the training area where our men are billeted and even in the remote parts of France where the forestry units are carrying out their lonely, but efficient and essential work. Your books are in continual demand from the time the soldiers arrive in camp in America until they come back home after service over there."

The A. L. A. library service has grown tremendously within the past few months and millions of books have been distributed wherever soldiers and sailors are quartered, on sea or land.

"NEED ONLY CREED" SAYS GIPSY SMITH

"Need is the only creed over there," declared Gipsy Smith, the famous evangelist, speaking to enormous audiences in southeastern cities, where mass meetings have been held in the interest of the United War Work campaign to open on November 11.

Mississippi Woman Serves Fighting Men As Y. W. C. A. Worker

KATY BOYD GEORGE.
She is rather wee and very winning. Her eyes repeat the blue on her Y. W. C. A. uniform that carries the insignia of her service. Her hair, gray for all the shortness of her span of years, frames a face worn, not thin, but one with a suffering that is more than merely vicarious.

She has lived in the shadows, has stood by while the throes were passed down above tortured eyes, has held the hands of those who tumbled in their Gethsemane. In a very literal and unrestricted sense, "She hath done what she could" for those who overcame endurance what we, sheltered and safe, read about. She is to tell her story in all cities of our Southeastern Department as a National speaker for the Y. W. C. A. during the United War Work Campaign to raise $250,000,000 during the week of November 11.

At the recent United War Work Convention in Jackson, she was wanted for a speech in the main convention hall while she was busy with committee work elsewhere. Several offers were made to find her the program lagged. Presently Gipsy Smith was missed out of a front seat; soon after she returned leading her up the aisle. At the foot of the rostrum she gathered up with a sweeping gesture H. E. King, J. M. Clinton, Capt. George S. Dingle and O. W. Buschgen. As the audience rose to its feet at sight of "Our Katie" the five men, like prankish school boys, made a crooked back-ground for the one small woman, while from five throats—bass, tenor and baritone—led the lifting strains of "Katie."

To Katty-Boyd George Mississippi women owe the fact that today the name of their grand old commonwealth is on the map of national and international service. Shall all women by concert of effort and sacrifice honor her splendid achievement?

We owe her a special sort of allegiance—a faith of duty, of tradition and affection. When she speaks we hear again the vibrant voice of her grand father, J. E. George, as he repeatedly calls during trying days of reconstruction, "Be true to the old ways, the old ways, the old ways." Her courage's independence spirit sings to her, she says, from her small simple home, calls to you from her steady eye.

Kaiser Arrives At Castle of Bentinck

Amsterdam, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—Count von Bentinck, at whose chateau the former German Emperor is staying, told the Handelsbald today that it was only yesterday afternoon that he received a sudden request from the Dutch government asking him to accommodate William Hohenzollern and his suite, the number in the retinue not being given. As the party numbers about fifty, the majority of its members are being lodged in neighboring hotels.

MRS. G. F. SPIKES DEAD.

After a short illness from Spanish influenza Mrs. G. F. Spikes, of the Jonas Williams school community died Saturday morning. She was buried in the Spikes family burial ground Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Spikes leaves a husband and three small children. An added cause of sympathy for the bereaved ones was the fact that neither Mr. Spikes nor any of the children were able to attend the burial of the wife and mother as all of them were in bed with the influenza.

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Royce City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Kilman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl...my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me...but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable...I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot... I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial. J. 11.

Why Will You Do It?

There is no necessity in paying an agent 30 per cent commission on a monument, when you can buy it direct from an established dealer, one with a reputation at stake.

Come to see us or write for designs and prices. Nothing too large or too small for us to handle.

If we can't interest you we lose—if we can we are both ahead.

Yours to command,
