Picnic a Fair Success in Spite of Rain

The picnic complimentary to returned soldiers of Beaver Dam on Saturday, May 10th, was a fair success in spite of mud and rain.

Near seventy-five people, and a good representation of soldiers gathered on the lawn of the Baptist church at Arthur for a spread dinner. (Did not have a fish fry as had planned for the creek was flooded) and surely the boys could but feel that they were in the Arthur school building at Arthur. The public is cordially invited to attend.

such a spread. Girls in red cross uniform served lemonade from a booth marked by a big red cross and the sign "Welcome Home".

Teachers of Arthur Entertained at Dinner

The lady teachers of Arthur graded school entertained a number of their friends at an informal dinner on Sunday, May 11th.

The corridor of the second floor of the school building was turned into a very attractive dining hall—my—the table was stacked with sandwiches, chicken, pickles and cake. There was no formality of dish serving, and every thing went in a free and merry way. Those who were fortunate in receiving such hospitality have an hour, worth remembering.

Those present were: Misses

Ella Turner of North Wilkshoro, Otella Cunningham of Durham, Goldie Lister of Greenville, Vera Mae Waters of Pactolus, Brightsey Savage of Farmville, Callie and Trilby Smith of Arthur, Messrs. Jesse Latham of Pactolus, Elbert Joyner, Lawrence White, Robert McArthur, Mack, Jim and Bob Smith of Arthur.
