He is one of the Greatest yearling sons of the Clansman and Giant Buster families, of Super Big Type Poland Chinas. He has come from Indiana to make the names Clansman and Poland China as Great and Famous throughout the southland as they are today in the West and North. He is the Herd Board on this farm.

WHO AND WHAT I AM.

I am one of the herd Boars of the Persimon Grove Stock Farm. I am one of the greatest sons of the Clansman, the King of Sires, the greatest and most popular Boar today of the Poland China breed.

The Clansman was sold for $15,000.00 cash in August 1919 being the first boar of any breed to sell for cash for such a great price.

CLANSMAN BUSTER NO. 112535.

I am a son of the mammoth sow Silver Brook model, first prize sow of Indiana State Fair in 1917 and Sired by Giant Buster No. 90455, whose dam was Big Lill No. 195342;
 I am therefore the grand son of the mighty Giant Buster, the Epoch maker, Indiana's Grand old champion, who won first prize as a yearling and the first prize and Grand championship as a 2 year old, and each year since his sons and daughters have won the lion's share of the blue ribbons at the leading fairs of the country;
 I am a grand son of Kramers kind, the sow that sold for $5,600.00 at public sale in February 1919;
 I am a brother of the Pioneer a son of the Clansman, who was sold for $5,000.00 cash 1919;
 I am a brother of the great Liberator, son of the Clansman, whom $15,000.00 was twice offered and refused in 1919.
 I am a brother of Designer, another Clansman son, who won first prize as a senior yearling at the Nebraska State Fair in September 1919 and who was sold for $5,000.00 cash.
 I am a brother of the Cavalier, another clansman son, who was sold for $5,000.00 1919;
 I am a brother of Giant Clansman, who was sold for $5,500.00 summer of 1919;
 I am a brother of the big Clansman, who sold for $6,000.00 at public sale August 1919;
 I am a brother of Mollie Clansman first prize junior yearling, senior and grand champion sow at the Ohio State Fair August 1919.

In February 1919 at public sale the Silver Brook Farm Muncie Indiana, sold twenty-nine sows bred to the Clansman for an average of $854.00 each. On September 6, 1919 Wrigley Jr. of Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, sold eight sows bred to the Clansman for an average $1,156.00 each. On September 6, 1919 Wm. Wrigley Jr. also sold 15 sons and daughters of the Clansman mostly 1919 spring pigs, for an average of $601.66 each, at the same time he also sold eight grand sons and grand daughters of the Clansman all 1919 spring pigs out of one litter for an average of $596.87 each. On September 17th, 1919 Silver Brook Farm, Muncie, Indiana, sold at public auction four sons and twenty-seven daughters of the Clansman for $27,000 at an average of $870.96 each. On September 18th 1919 Williams, Spurling & Wellington, Clymers, Ind., sold at public auction ten sons and thirty-six daughters of the mighty Giant Buster for $39,405.00 or an average of $657.93 each. On September 13th 1919 E. A. Wiggins of Evansville, Ind., sold at public auction ten Poland China sows breeding privilege to the Pioneer a product of Buster Clansman for $12,940.00 bringing an average of 1,294.00 each.
