BEAUTIFUL WEDDING AS RICHMOND, VA.

Two Popular Young People
Are United in Marriage at High Noon Nov. 27th.

One of the most beautiful weddings in Richmond, Va., the past week was that of Miss Laura Ethlene Crowder, daughter of the late Charles Womack Crowder and Mrs. Crowder to Robert Lee Flanagan of Farmville, North Carolina.

The ceremony was solemnized at high noon, Wednesday, November 27th at the home of the bride, 3223 Floyd Avenue, the Rev. J. Franklin Cary, pastor of Grace Memorial Church being the celebrant.

The drawing rooms and reception halls were beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and palms furnishing an attractive setting for the occasion.

Immediately preceding the bride and carrying a basket from which she scattered rose petals was little Miss Lucille Puett, daintily frocked in white and yellow ribbons. Following her was little Miss Mary Elizabeth Puett, wearing a tulle dress and blue ribbons, who carried the ring hidden in a large chrysanthemum. The ushers were Messrs. Alfred Flanagan and Louis Flanagan.

During the ceremony "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms" was softly rendered by Miss Ariyne Parrish at the piano accompanied by Miss Isabel Fuller on the violin.

The bride wore a handsome going away suit of taupe velour, her flowers being a semi-show of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

Out of town guests for the wedding were: Miss Daulah Flanagan of Farmville, N. C.; Miss S. B. Wilcox, Ballville; Mrs. Wilcox of Lynchburg; Alfred Flanagan of North Carolina, and Louis Flanagan of Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan left for an extended bridal trip through the North and on their return will be at home to their friends at 3223 Floyd Avenue.
