Farmville B. P. O. E.'s Meet and Organize Club.

At a called meeting of the B. P. O. E. of Farmville and vicinity, members of Washington Lodge 822, it was decided that a club be organized and maintained in Farmville.

At this meeting, to which a good number were present, the organization was perfected by the election of D. E. Oglesby, permanent chairman, and G. A. Rouse, secretary and treasurer.

After some discussion regarding a suitable location for the club, a committee composed of W. H. Moore, R. A. Fields and R. E. Tucker was appointed by the chairman to investigate as to securing suitable quarters at the most reasonable figure. Another committee composed of Lee Roy Rollins and G. A. Rouse was named for the purpose of drafting by-laws, rules and regulations in addition to those of the order.

At the next meeting to be held in the directors room at the Bank of Farmville on Tuesday night Jan. 24th these committees will make their report, and it is important that every member of the order, who wishes to see a club organized here, be present.

Tuesday Afternoon Club with Mrs. Jones.

The members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and a few invited guests enjoyed a number of games of bridge at the home of Mrs. G. A. Jones on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. John McKinnon made highest score and was awarded the prize. Mrs. Jones served her guests an iced course.

At King's X Roads next Sunday.

Next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock there will be a Sunday School conference in the Free Will Baptist Presbyterian church at King's Cross Roads between representatives from the Presbyterian Sunday School of Farmville and the Free Will Baptist Sunday School.

The purpose of the conference will be to discuss the advisability of the Presbyterians assuming control of the school at the invitation of the present Supt.

Please every person in the community who has any interest in the advancement of Christianity in this community consider it your duty to attend this conference. You'll be interested certainly. Let us meet you there at three o'clock p. m.
