PINCHOT OPPOSES FORD'S OWNERSHIP

Washington, May 31.— Gifford Pinchot, Pennsylvania gubernatorial candidate and America's best known conservationist will appear tomorrow before the senate agriculture committee to recommend permanent government ownership of Muscle Shoals, it was learned here today.

He will also pass judgment on Ford's bids. His visit was arranged by Senator Norris, chairman of the committee.

It is believed Pinchot will oppose the offer of Henry Ford owing to the failure of the Detroit manufacturer to guarantee the title of the project to the government. It is expected he will also urge reforestation at head of the waters of the Tennessee river in order to insure adequate flow of water at Muscle Shoals.

CHARGES BRYAN IS SEEKING PUBLICITY

Rome, Ga., May 31.—Professor William Harris, brother of Senator Harris and superintendent of Georgia college for the deaf and also a prominent biologist today characterized William Jennings Bryan's declaration of evolution as an effort to keep himself before the public eye by grabbing at the popular side of every question. He denied that he had planned to meet Bryan in a series of debates on the subject.

HELEN YORKE IS PRAISED BY MANY PAPERS IN MAINE

Noted Artist to Sing ... Auditorium Monday, May 5th

Helen Yorke made a tour ... last year through her native state of Maine, and wherever she went the newspapers gave rave notices of her singing.

The Bangor Commercial has the following to say: "Helen Yorke's singing won for the gracious and lovely Maine girl every heart and every possible praise. She is simplicity itself, grace incarnate, and her loveliness is of face, of voice, and of bearing. She is a dainty, piquant individual, and there is all the fresh unspoiled quality of youth in that beautiful voice, for even though her great art has been so flatteringly acknowledged in the world of music, she is, one sees instantly, quite unspoiled, and in every sense radiant in sweetness and in delight in the joy she can bring with that wonderfully sweet voice."

The Portland Press:

"Her voice is simple and sweet as a mountain brook with the same rippling qualities, and her runs and thrills were as effortless as can be imagined." Miss Yorke's personality is one of her best assets. She is the embodiment of the spirit of her songs."
