THE RIALTO THEATRE

Has closed for the Summer months, but will re-open

September 4th
LABOR DAY

The Serial "WHITE EAGLE," featuring Ruth Roland will be continued, the Seventh Episode on Friday as before.

The patronage has been very small this Spring and we trust that after the hot weather is over and we re-open the theatre in September that our patronage will be better.

As we all know a theatre is like any other business. It can't survive without support from the public.

Christian Missionary Society Meets With Mrs. Smith

On Friday afternoon division No. 2, Mrs. Fred Smith, leader, entertained division No. 1, Mrs. O. E. Fox, leader, thus bringing the entire Missionary Society of the Christian Church together in a united meeting for election of officers for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Fred Smith was hostess and her home on Wilson Street had been made unusually attractive for the occasion with potted plants and vases of cut flowers.

Each member of the division had a part in the entertainment of the guests.

Mrs. Moses Moya received the guests and directed them to the punch bowl where fruit punch was served by Mesdames Otis Taylor and Jason Turnage.

After the election of officers the following instructive and interesting program was rendered. A Talk—"The Radiating Center" Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

Piano Solo—Sallie Mae Smith. "The Better Way"—a Missionary Play, with the following characters:

Missionary Chairman, Thelma Flanagan.

Returned Missionary—Mrs. R. B. Tyre.

Interested Church Worker—Mrs. Layton.

Foreign Women—Mrs. Howard Harris, Mrs. H. P. Moseley, Mrs. Geo. Windham.

Christian Woman—Mrs. J. Y. Monk.

Vocal Solo—Miss Nell Moya.

The guests were invited to the dining room, which had been artistically decorated in the colors of the society, and while here a refreshing luncheon was served by Mesdames Moseley, Harvey Turnage, Monk and Sallie Mae Smith.

Two new members were received at the close of the meeting, Mrs. Raberry and Mrs. J. W. Bundy.
