

Quality and Salt

You remember the child's definition of salt: "It is what makes things taste bad when you don't put any on."

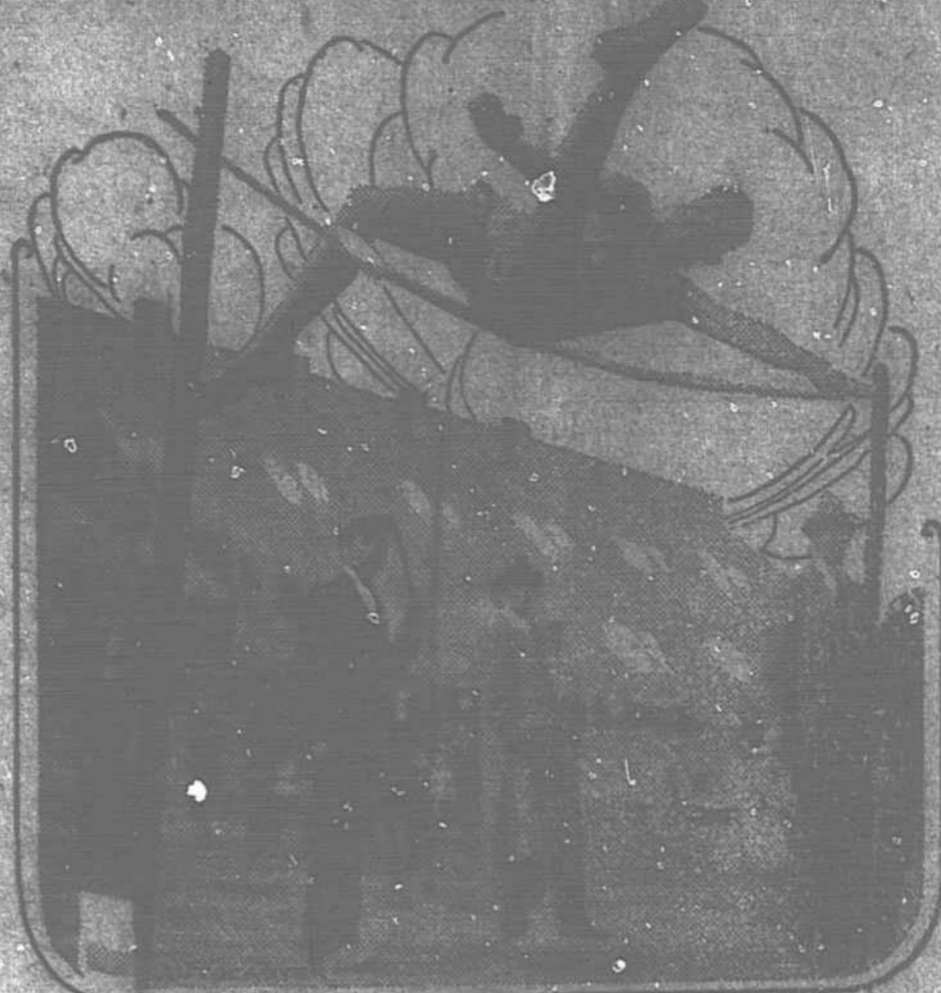

Quality in a shoe is like that—it makes a shoe look bad when you don't get it.

The trade-mark on a Walk-Over shoe is assurance of quality.

Winning the High Jump in Harvard Stadium

This remarkable action photograph of Le Roy Brown, of Dartmouth College, winner of the high jump at the intercollegiate athletic meet in the Harvard stadium on May 27, shows the Dartmouth lads are not "cake eaters," "tea hounds," or "spineless molly coddles."

HEIRESS MARRIES MAIL MAN'S SON

London, June 28.—Romance growing out of the war culminated in the marriage here today of Harold Glendening, of Norwalk, Connecticut, son of a mail-carrier and Alice Dupont, wealthy heiress. They met when Glendening was working as a chemist. Miss Dupont's father is the owner of the large munitions work in this country.

DAKOTA ELECTION CREATES INTEREST

Washington, June 28.—Official and political Washington watched with absorbing interest today the North Dakota Republican primary where Senator McCumber, chairman of the national senate finance committee, is fighting for his political life against Frank Frazier, member of the Administration League and former governor. Indications are that McCumber will be defeated by the Democrats' sensational candidate, J. O'Connell.

Buy your TIRES where you see THIS SIGN

The Goodrich Tire sign on a dealer's store is worth money to you. It is more than a guide—it is a guaranty. It says: "Here is a dealer who knows the value of the one-quality standard of Goodrich. Here is a store run by a man who believes in building permanent business through genuinely good service. Here is a place that you can depend upon—a place that gives you full value in return for every dollar spent."

Buy your tires where you see the Goodrich Tire sign. It means satisfaction in every transaction.

COMMUNITY MEET TO BE STAGED AT AYDEN ON FRIDAY

Members of Extensive Committee of Red Cross Urged to Attend

At the executive committee meeting of the Red Cross chapter, all who could possibly do so were urged to be at the Ayden community meeting, which will be held in the High school auditorium at 8 p. m., Friday night.

The evening will be most interesting to all concerned in community work, as the Ayden Red Cross branch has planned their own program, and the main idea is for every one to get together and enjoy seeing each other, forgetting their petty differences and thus becoming more united.

Chairman G. W. Primm will make a short talk outlining their community plans and recreational program. Mrs. L. T. Turnage is chairman of the civic com., and Mrs. Helen Turnage of the Recreational committee and both have done splendid work.

A number of persons interested in the Red Cross from Greenville intend going over, and it is hoped by all that there will be no rain.
