If It's The Best and Busiest Town You're Looking For, Be Sure to Locate There—Then Come to Farmville, N. C.

Motto for FARMVILLE
The Little City With Big Possibilities

THE FARMVILLE ENTERPRISE

Published by The Rouse Printery

Subscription $1.50 a Year in Advance

VOL. 13 FARMVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, JULY 7, 1922 NO. 9

OPENING OF E. C. TOBACCO MARKET POSTPONED UNTIL AUG. 15

ALL TOBACCO MARKETS AGREE THAT IS WOULD BE BETTER THAN 8TH

Postponement Believed to be of Great Benefit to Farmers of Section.

Eastern Carolina tobacco markets will not open for the sale of leaf tobacco until August 15, according to an announcement made by J. Frank Bibbey, president of the Eastern Carolina Tobacco Warehouse Association. This decision was reached at a joint session of members of the Eastern Carolina Warehouse association and the Tobacco Association of the United States who were recently in session at Richmond.

The opening was first announced for August 8th, but after discussing the matter from all angles it was decided that it would be for the best interest of the farmers to postpone it until August 15. This will throw the opening exactly one week later and should give the farmers and tobaccoists some time to prepare for the opening days. In fact were housemen, from Wilson, Kinston, Farmville, Rocky Mount, Robersonville and Greenville all agreed to the change and signified their favor at the meeting.

THE KAISER TODAY

A new and most recent picture of William Hohenzollern, former Kaiser, taken at his estate in Doorn, Holland. The former ruler has aged considerably since the war, it is said.

YOUNG MEN DROWN IN POND NEAR FALKLAND

NIGHT TRAINS ARE NOT TO BE TAKEN OFF IMMEDIATELY

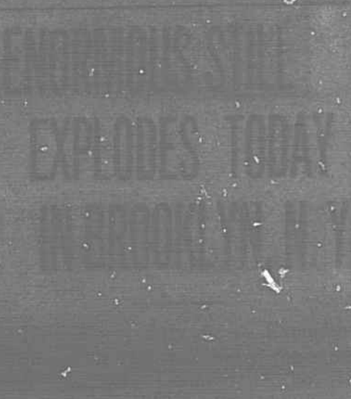
TRAINS NOS. 17 AND 18 WILL BE REMOVED TOO SHORT WHILE

Other Organizations Take Vigorous Action to Prevent Discontinuance of Service.

Chambers of commerce in all parts of the state affected are putting up a stiff fight to prevent demoralization of passenger train service, and if the strike should show the slightest improvement it is certain the railroad company will grant their request.

—Greenville Reflector.

HOW DO YOU LIKE HER SHOES, GIRLS?



This is the first in a series of moderne shoes. The last one only on the paper next week. Watch for the paper next week.

TWO SMALL BOYS STRUCK BY AUTO AND ONE KILLED

Accident Occurred Near Farmville Thursday Morning. Boys Were Riding in Tobacco Truck.

The nine and twelve year old sons of Dave Creech, who reside on Mrs. Alice King's farm, on the Farmville and Falkland road, three miles from Farmville, were struck by an automobile Thursday morning and the younger killed instantly and the other seriously injured. The boys were riding in a tobacco truck when struck by the car.

The accident occurred about 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning when the boys were driving a mule to a tobacco truck when struck by the car. The mule was killed and the truck damaged. The boys were thrown to the ground and the younger was killed instantly, his neck being broken. The other boy was badly injured, a broken leg and other injuries, but it is thought he will recover.

The boys were on their way to the tobacco barn when the accident occurred. The car was driven by Mr. Hodgespeth, who resides in the same community.

One of the boys got his neck broken and died instantly, and the other, though seriously injured, is still living and may recover. The boys were driving a mule to a tobacco truck when struck by the car.

EXPLOSION AT EDGECOMBE EXPLODES TODAY IN BROOKLYN, N. Y.

AMOS JACKSON DEFEATS R. E. CORBETT FOR OFFICE SHERIFF

GREATEST INTEREST CENTERED AROUND THE FIGHT IN ALL PARTS

Jackson Polls Majority of 462 Votes Out of All Fourteen Voting Places.

Amos Jackson defeated R. E. Corbett for the sheriff's office in Pitt county in the primary Saturday, according to complete returns received at this office. The total vote cast in the county approximated 3,560, about one thousand less than in the first primary one month ago. Jackson's vote from the fourteen precincts was 2018 against Corbett's 1551, a majority of 462 votes.

While the largest vote was polled at the Greenville box it is probable that Winterville gave Jackson the greatest majority. Farmville, however, rallied to Corbett giving him a two hundred majority over Jackson.

While there wasn't as much interest manifested in the primary this time as last, the supporters of each candidate rallied their forces around the polls and did everything possible for their interest.

The vote by precinct follows:

Ayer—Jackson, 291, Corbett, 141; Bethel—Jackson, 137; Corbett, 86; Belvoir—Jackson, 31; Corbett, 22; Beaver Dam, Jackson, 34, Corbett, 65; Chicod—Jackson, 393, Corbett, 143; Carolina—Jackson 116, Corbett, 58; Falkland—Jackson, 16, Corbett, 60; Fountains—Jackson, 7, Corbett, 97; Farmville—Jackson, 57, Corbett, 289; Grifton—Jackson, 80, Corbett, 56; South Creek—Jackson, 4, Corbett, 15; Pactolus—Jackson, 20, Corbett, 6; Greenville—Jackson, 475, Corbett 432; Winterville—Jackson, 233, Corbett, 49.

MILLION PEOPLE IDLE IN AMERICA

Washington, July 6.—More than a million and a quarter people are idle in the United States at present time as result of strikes and other disorders, the department of labor estimated this afternoon.

CONDITIONS MUCH BETTER IN NATION

Washington, July 6.—Despite transportation and strike accompanying the labor difficulties of the railroads, the fundamental economic conditions of the United States are most favorable.

Business again presents a picture of prosperity, the department of commerce declared in a comprehensive industrial survey completed this afternoon. Prices are fifty percent above the pre-war level and the financial situation is more favorable than in months.

JULY 10TH

...so we can sell our surplus ... to other customers ...

Farmville Oil & Fertilizer Co.

As Four Horsemen Ride In Coal Fields

STRIKE DISORDERS REPORTED IN TENN

Nashville, July 6.—C. Newman, secretary to the superintendent of the Tennessee Central railroad, the first local victim of violence resulting from the strike. Newman is in a hospital as result of an attack by C. Anderson, assistant mechanic on strike. According to the police Anderson beat Newman with a stick.

HAMMOND HOTEL IS TAKEN BY SOLDIERS

London, July 6.—Irregulars who have been defending the Hammond hotel in Dublin the past several hours, surrendered this afternoon, according to advices received by authorities here.

EXAMINATION OF TEACHERS TO BE HELD HERE SOON

Regular teachers examinations will be held at the high school building in Greenville on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 11th and 12th. Examinations will begin at 9 o'clock in the morning. All applicants desiring to take this examination should bring paper and pencils with them. No application will be taken on professional work.

Railway employees are perfectly willing and ready to consider proposals for ending the strike, it was stated by high union officials yesterday. But no one is ever sure before they will be still more willing to listen to some new offer. Meanwhile, the country is suffering from the strike.

MEMORIAL.

In memory of Mrs. Moses D. Moye, who on June 20th heard a voice softly whispering "Come" and went on earth it does. She answered the call without a murmur.

Mrs. Moye was the daughter of the late Isaac and Mary Barrow, who survive her. She was united in marriage to Moses D. Moye, Dec. 24, 1879. To this union were born seven children, five of whom survive her. She was a member of the Christian church, and lived a consistent Christian life. She was a loving wife and mother, and a kind neighbor. She was loved by all who knew her. She was a member of the Woodmen Circle.

Her husband and children have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

The House Printery, Farmville, N. C.
FOR BETTER PRINTING
Send Us Your Orders