Magazine Club.

Mrs. J. H. Darden entertained the Magazine Club Wednesday afternoon, 3 o'clock.

After the old Club books had been traced a number of new ones were selected for the coming year. The Club will sell Red Cross Christmas seals as usual this year and the President announced that they had arrived. A letter from the Red Cross office was read asking for gifts for the Soldiers and sick nurses at Oteen. The Club decided to make and fill the cretone bags as suggested.

The new program on "Contemporary Literature," which promises to be very interesting as well as instructive was begun at this meeting. The first paper was on Eugene O'Neil—his life, early performances, professional success and plays—was written by Mrs. J. L. Shackelford. Mrs. Walter Sheppard gave a talk on Sir James Barrie, another successful playwright, and concluded with a synopsis of "Mary Rose" which introduces the bit of spiritism Barrie has recently added to his plots.

Mrs. R. T. Marlin's application was gladly received and her name added to the roll.

Mrs. W. V. McRae, of New Bern and Mrs. J. T. Thorne were charming guests at this meeting.

After the Club adjourned delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. G. A. Jones and Mrs. Thomas.

Progressive Bridge Club Gives Luncheon.

A most delightful bridge luncheon was given by the Progressive Bridge Club to its members and a few invited guests at the home of Mrs. J. W. Joyner Saturday, November 25th.

The guests were welcomed most graciously by the hostess and the President of the Club, Mrs. W. C. Askew.

The lovely home was effectively decorated with quantities of golden chrysanthemums and autumn foliage.

Eight tables of bridge were arranged. Miss Tabitha DeVisconti won the first prize a lovely flower bowl and the lucky winners of the table prizes—compact—were: Mrs. Alex Bynum, Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Miss DeVisconti, Miss K. Moseley, Mrs. Chas. Rountree, Mrs. J. H. Darden, Mrs. P. E. Jones and Miss E. Surrill.

A course luncheon was served after which the honor guest, Mrs. Darden, made a few remarks of appreciation of the kindness and thoughtfulness of her friends.

in making the luncheon such a delightful one.

SAFETY

Peace-Time Patriotism

We offer our services in the redemption of your

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

which will be due January 1st, 1923. Bring us your stamps, we do the rest.

The American people were fairly started on the road to

NATIONAL THRIFTNESS

during the war. They learned how to get along without a good many things that had heretofore been considered necessary, and many who had never saved before managed to lend money to the government.

It is to be hoped that the people will not forget the War Lesson of economy and thrift, and that those who have fallen back into the old ways of extravagant living will soon come to realize that patriotism can be exemplified as well in Peace as in War. Patriotism demands Thrift. Our Savings Department offer real advantages to the Saver.
