FRIDAY DEC. 8, 1922,

New Methodist Minister Assumes Charge of Church Here

The Rev. C. T. Thrift assumed the pastorate of the Methodist church of this city and preached his first sermon to a large congregation Sunday morning.

Mr. Thrift and his family come to this field from Clayton where his zeal, faithfulness and consecration to his Master's service has been highly praised.

The local church is to be congratulated on having Mr. Thrift as its pastor.

Thanksgiving at the Davis Hotel.

Mrs. Wilson proprietress of the Davis Hotel, served a delightful dinner Thanksgiving to her guests and a few invited friends. One table was made to seat the entire party and was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and heaps of fine fruits and loaded with Thanksgiving "accessories."

Messrs. LeRoy Rollins and Harvey Turnage returned to Wilson Sunday afternoon after spending the week end at their homes here.

Bachelor Maids.

The Bachelor Maids were delightfully entertained Monday evening by Miss Susie Copelan at the home of Mr. Tom Dixon on Main Street.

Bowls of blooming narcissus graced the living room where the maids enjoyed an hour of sewing and fancy work. Miss Copelan served a delightful salad course.

A number of our people motored to Greenville Thursday night to see "Blood and Sand" among whom we note Mr. A. C. Monk and party and Mrs. C. S. Roundtree and party.

SERVICE

SAFETY

This bank stands guard constantly providing your funds with protection.

Peace-Time Patriotism

We offer our services in the redemption of your

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

which will be due January 1st, 1923. Bring us your stamps, we do the rest.

The American people were fairly started on the road to during the war. They learned how to get along without a good many things that had heretofore been considered necessary, and many who had never saved before managed to lend money to the government.

It is to be hoped that the people will not forget the War Lesson of economy and thrift, and that those who have fallen back into the old ways of extravagant living will soon come to realize that patriotism can be exemplified as well in Peace as in War. Patriotism demands Thrift. Our Savings Department offer real advantages to the Saver.
