Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 it is requested that everybody stay at home. Let us all co-operate in this enterprise, that it may work for the good of the town and community.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

EPISCOPAL AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church met Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. C. Askew.

The devotional services were conducted by the president, Mrs. G. A. Jones, and a study of the Philippines was enjoyed under her direction also. After the program a short business session was held, during which dues were paid up for the year.

The last meeting of 1923 will be a social one, and Mrs. J. E. Warren is the hostess. The Rainy Day bags will be turned in at this meeting and Monday, December 31, is the date.

MERRY MATRONS

Mrs. J. Loyd Horton was hostess to the Merry Matrons Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was a strictly business one and various matters of interest to the group were brought up. A bit of welfare work which this club has undertaken for the past month is the nourishing of a sickly infant in the rural district. Mrs. J. I. Morgan reported that this endeavor had gone forward and that a marked improvement had been noted in the child. The pouncing of a needy family was decided upon and a motion as to the sending of Christmas stockings to Oteen soldiers was carried unanimously. These packages are to be sent to the home of the president, Mrs. J. Loyd Horton and a committee, composed of Messdames R. A. Fields and B. O. Turnage, is to attend to packing and mailing same. The treasurer was instructed to send ten dollars to the State Endowment Fund.

The hostess served delicious fruit before the meeting adjourned.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION TO MEET THURSDAY

The local Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular December meeting on Thursday, December 20, instead of the usual date which falls on the day when the high school faculty will be preparing to leave for the holidays.

This meeting promises to be really the best yet for the shrubbery is not on the way, but is here and part of the playground equipment has also arrived. So every member is urged to be present at this time as an interesting meeting is planned.

AN ATTRACTIVE PARTY

Among the feted affairs of the past week was a most enjoyable bridge party given by Mrs. J. W. Joyner on Saturday afternoon to the members of her card club and a few other guests.

The home was beautifully decorated throughout with holly and mistletoe and six tables were arranged in the reception and living rooms where auction was enthusiastically enjoyed. Mrs. R. A. Bynum was winner of the high score prize, a vogue set, and miniature Christmas trees as table prizes were won by Messdames Ed Marrow, H. W. Turnage, H. P. Moseley, W. C. Askew, J. Y. Monk and Miss Guilla Askew. Mrs. Sterling Gates and Mrs. R. T. Martin who were invited as special guests also received these trees as gifts.

After the games delicious orange ice and small cakes were served.

Besides the members of her club Mrs. Joyner had as guests Messdames Marye, Sterling Gates, G. W. Gates, Jack Smith, S. M. Morris of Winston-Salem; R. T. Martin, A. S. Bynum, R. A. Bynum, R. O. Lang, J. Loyd Horton, Walter Newton, Walter Jones, W. C. Askew, J. L. Shackelford, Misses Mildred Bynum, Tabitha De-Visconti, Elizabeth Kittrell, Guilla Askew and Julia Willson.

TRIANGLE CLUB

Twenty-one members of the Triangle Club met with Miss Mary Louise Hinson on Monday evening and a very interesting program was carried out, Miss Sallie Baker presiding.

The topic talk, "Building in India," was made by Miss Nellie Eason while the map talk was given by the president, Mr. Thomas Taylor, and Miss Natalia Johnston told the world call story in a most interesting manner. During a business session the club decided to entertain at a Christmas party in honor of Messrs. Arthur Jones and Sammy Bundy who will be home for the holidays.

Delightful sandwiches and hot chocolate were later served by the hostess. The club was invited to meet next with Miss Mildred Barrett.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Gates, who were recently married were the honorees at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones on Friday evening.

The dining room was lovely in Christmas greens and a vase of white geraniums and fern formed a centerpiece for the table where covers were laid for eight.

A four course dinner was served and beautiful red roses were given as favors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones' guests included Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Gates, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Turnage.

YOUNG PEOPLES' SOCIETY

Mrs. C. W. Shackelford was hostess Monday to a social meeting of the Young Peoples' Missionary society of the Methodist church.

Christmas decorations added a cheerful note to the festivities. After the arrival of the members a new book of study for the coming year was agreed upon.

Various games and contests were enjoyed. Among these were a Chinese spelling match, a laughing game and a contest on Biblical characters.

A delicious fruit salad, saltines, sandwiches and pickles were served by the hostess at the close of the merry evening.

Clothing for Men and Boys

CLOTHING serves further than as a mere covering for the body and a protection against the wintery winds. It stands as an index to the public of personality. More than that it furnishes a "look the part" feeling.

Dad and the boys should dress up for the Christmas season. An unusually broad choice of new fabrics and models are to be had here—semi-conservative models, with the proper dash of style.

A complete line of Manhattan Shirts for young men and men who are older. We have them either with or without collar.

Nowhere can a larger or more complete line of ladies, gents or children's shoes can be had.

AN IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFT

All the new styles and shades. Hosiery to match.
