

WARNS OF DANGER OF CARBON MONOXIDE

"Forget about the thermometer, no matter if it is flirting with zero, and open up that garage door if you are going to run your motor inside," says Roy M. Chipley, of the Chipley Motor Co., Raleigh.

"This is an annual warning that possibly has grown hackneyed but it is one which can't be given too often, especially at this time of the year, for the penalty of its non-observance in most cases is death.

"A majority of automobiles are kept in small garages, which through the winter are tightly closed. With the motor running, these small structures, when the doors are shut, fill quickly with deadly carbon monoxide.

"Deaths following the running of automobile motors in closed garages have been of such frequent occurrence in every part of the country that it would be thought warnings now are unnecessary, but the poisonous gas is so insidious in its action that motorists grow careless with it.

"If your motor is hitting on all of them sweet and pretty and no smoke at all is coming from the exhaust don't take it for granted that no harm can befall and close the garage door. Carbon monoxide is odorless, tasteless and invisible.

"Carbon monoxide is present in the exhaust of an automobile all the time. In a building where the air is being circulated constantly or in a large structure the amount of gas coming from one car is so small relatively that it can do no harm, but in a small garage with windows and doors closed enough is produced in a very short time to cause death.

MILLION MARRIAGES

Washington.—There were 1,126,418 marriages performed and 148,554 divorces granted in the United States during the calendar year 1922, according to statistics compiled by the bureau of the census and announced recently by the United States department of commerce.

For the calendar year 1916, the last year for which these statistics were collected by the bureau of census, there were 1,840,684 marriages and 112,036 divorces reported.

Accepting as correct the figures announced by the department of commerce, there were in 1922, 1,033 marriages and 136 divorces per 100,000 population, as compared with 1,055 marriages and 112 divorces in 1916.

A prohibition agent was shot to death in a Buffalo restaurant last week in the midst of a crowd of diners, who trampled one another in an attempt to escape the rain of bullets. Nine bullets were found in his body. Whiskey smuggling is no different from silk smuggling. It's a safe bet that if silk were being smuggled instead of whiskey that every idle soldier in the U. S. Army, every gunboat in the navy would be put to work to enforce our constitution and destroy the outlaws. But—!

During recent political debates Lloyd George asserted that under free trade Great Britain was the greatest exporter of manufactures. The United States exported $150,000,000 worth of cotton goods while England sent out over $900,000,000 worth. Last year the United States sold $190,000,000 worth of iron and steel, while the British exports were $300,000,000. There seems to be considerable room for thought in these figures and in the fact that all goods were sold in an open world market.

NOTICE OF SALE

Under and by virtue of authority conferred in Section 2435, of the Consolidated Statutes of North Carolina, I will offer for sale, to the highest bidder for cash, in front of Rouse's garage, on Main street, in the town of Farmville, County of Pitt, State of North Carolina, on Saturday, the 25th day of December, 1923, at 12:00 o'clock, noon, the following personal property, to wit: One five passenger Ford automobile, Model 1920, serial No. —, it being the property of one Charlie Smith.

Said sale is being made to satisfy a mechanic's and laborer's lien. This the 1st day of December, 1923. T. H. ROUSE, Martin & Sheppard, Attorneys.

Got Something

You Want to Sell?

Most people have a piece of furniture, a farm implement, or something else which they have discarded and which they no longer want.

These things are put in the attic, or stored away in the barn, or left lying about, getting of less and less value each year.

WHY NOT SELL THEM?

Somebody wants these very things which have become of no use to you. Why not try to find that somebody by putting a want advertisement in THIS NEWSPAPER?

"Strong and Well"

"I WISH you could know how much I am improved since taking the Cardui," writes Mrs. Nannie Brown, of Black Rock, Ark. "You wouldn't know me for the same weak invalid I was before I took it. At my... I had to keep off my feet or I would fall. I couldn't do my housework, and just got where I'd most as lief be dead as living. Some one told my husband of Cardui. He got it for me and I took three bottles before I stopped—then off and on for the last three years just as a tonic. I saw a decided improvement after my first bottle. I used the three, and was able to do my work with ease, and now I sew for my family and for others. I am feeling fine, and strong and well."

Take Cardui! It may be just the medicine you need.

Everybody Come

Santa Claus season is here—and our TOYLAND portals are swung open for every little and big boy and girl in Farmville and this entire section. Even Santa Claus himself is expected any day. Can you afford to stay away?

Everything is in readiness. The most wonderful toys that ever you did see are here. So be very, very good and bring mother—and dad—and sister—and brother,—oh, just every one you can think of. Let's make this a regular party. They'll enjoy it as much as you, see if they don't.

P. S.—Santa has a big red mail box all his own. So if you wish you can write him a letter all your very own.

Toyland is a wonder spot. It has trains—and street cars—and automobiles—and wild animals and ships—and policemen—and firemen—and airplanes—and all kind of games—and, oh gee, just come and see.

And dolls—and cradles—and chairs—and ironing boards—and wash boards—and carriages—and trunks—and desks—and houses—and parlor sets—and brides—and grandmas—and little sisters and brothers—An' everything.
