A Philadelphia store has a bell which can be heard 30 miles. This beats Mr. Coolidge's record by 30

Ah, well; those who now fear for the young once hid in the barn to smoke and read Deadwood Dick.

Education must seem less wonderful to a boy whose educated dad can't help him in the eighth grade.

The various sections of America agree on almost everything except the proper thing to be ashamed of.

It is true love if it endures after hearing her describe 82,942 different things as "perfectly precious."

If knighthood were yet in flower, certain young men would check their shoes before dancing.

And now nothing remains of the foot ball season except trying to get the other fellow's coach.

You can recognize the typical American anywhere. He is asking somebody for a match.

Most of the big jobs are held by men who couldn't even name three naughty magazines.

So few attain that nice balance midway between inferiority complex and swellhead.

What this country needs, along with a good five-cent cigar, is a five-cent appetite.

The "sticks" is that region where a thief is just a thief instead of a master criminal.

So very many have been doing five days' work and scattering it over six days.

There's one Progressive Senator not easily to handle. He doesn't eat breakfast.

"I see in the paper that a widower with nine children out in Nebraska has married a widow with seven children."

"That was no marriage, that was a merger."—Washington Post.

We never looked at it this way before but it is a fact that there are a few lot of "s" curves in Mississippi.

"Does an oyster suffer?"—now seems to be the newspaper subject of the moment. We say "yes"—if he is a married oyster.

"No Bath House
Have some whiskey?"
"No, thanks, I never touch anything but water."
"Well, I'm not asking you to wash your hands in it."

"Have you ever been at sea before?" asked the captain of an Irishman who applied as a cook on a steamer docked at New York.

"At sea before? An' dy'e think Oi came over from the ould country in a tub?"

A Scotchman who was about to get married informed the minister that he wanted the ceremony performed in the poultry yard.

"Why?" asked the clergyman.
"Well, the rice will feed the hens," replied the prospective bridegroom.—
The Arrow.

A CARD OF THANKS
As we cannot thank all personally we take this method to express our appreciation for the sympathetic service rendered us during the illness and death of our father and husband. The medical service by Dr. C. C. Joyner could not have been excelled, nor the floral designs surpassed. We sincerely thank you, neighbors, friends and relatives, one and all.
Mrs. A. C. Bynum and Children.

Young Hostess
Caught Napping
"It was never so embarrassing in my life," confessed a young bride recently; "never again will I be caught without some cool and refreshing drink to offer my guests when they drop in unexpectedly."
"But how easily her discomfort could have been avoided! How easily could she have won their pleased approval if only she had had in the top-box a Logan bottles of Orange-Crush!
Made from real oranges and containing real orange juice, Orange-Crush is the most delightful treat wherever women gather for an afternoon or evening party. Served in gleaming glasses, it instantly bespeaks the thoughtful hostess.
There are six reasons why Orange-Crush is so surpassingly delicious: First, the juice of luscious oranges; next, the delicate flavor of their peel; next, the zesty tang of the fruit acid found in oranges, lemons and limes. Added to this, a pure food color such as is used in cakes and candies, healthful, carbonated water, pure cane sugar. Nothing else.
Orange-Crush may be obtained by the case either from one's neighborhood dealer or from the local bottler. The public is warned to ask for it by name and to identify it by the Krinkly Bottle.

Just try Camels and you'll know why no other cigarette can compare with them. Let the choice of the modern world show you what smoking enjoyment can really be.

No REGULAR HOURS
If the home owner knew just when and how and at what hour the sneak thief or burglar was to "pull the job" at his home—he could of course be prepared and would suffer no loss. But things don't work out that way.
The safest method therefore is to take every reasonable precaution, and one of the most efficient ways to protect valuables is in a safety deposit box.
During summer months, when the family is away from home a great deal, is the time when sneak thieves are most active. A safety deposit box here at our bank costs little.
Valuable papers, flat silver and other valuables are safe and insured against loss.
Step in. See for yourself. Let us explain the low cost and the service we extend to all our patrons.
