FARMVILLE BOWLING TEAM DEFEATS WASHINGTON BOWLING TEAM—1939-1940

The Bowling fans of Farmville are a bit doubtful of the old, old tale of how Rip Van Winkle went to sleep in the Catskill Mountains while he was bowling. That is because certainly none of them slept last night while the Doctor Pepper Team of Washington and the Farmville team matched in the Farmville Bowling Alley. The fans claim that the players kept them on their toes every minute during the game. The Washington team is composed of the personnel of the Dr. Pepper Bottling Company and the Farmville team is composed of Farmville business men with R. N. Freeman as captain. Members of the Farmville Bowling team as well as the spectators claim that they enjoyed the match more than any other played in or witnessed in this section. The Dr. Pepper team captain and other members of the Washington team expressed their desire to match the Farmville team and the challenge has been accepted and is to be played off in the Washington Bowling Alley, Monday night, March the fourth.

The official score of the game—Farmville 1633, Washington 1513.

MRS. T. M. DAVENPORT

Dunn. — Mrs. Barbara Manning Davenport, 59 of Cumberland County died at her home on Godwin, Route 1, early Tuesday morning after a short illness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 11 o'clock at the Old Bluff Presbyterian Church, near Wade. The Rev. W. E. Snipes, pastor, officiated. Interment was made in the cemetery here at three o'clock.

Mrs. Davenport, daughter of the late Wallace and Adeline Manning, was a native of Pitt County. She moved from Franklin County to Cumberland about 18 years ago and resided there since. She retained membership in the Rocky Mount Methodist Church.

Surviving are her husband, T. M. Davenport, and a daughter, Mrs. Jimmie Wallace of Godwin, Route 1; a half sister, Mrs. W. J. Rollins of Farmville.

ENTERTAINS CLASSMATES AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Nancy Lu Moore, winsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moore, Jr., was hostess to classmates, numbering 88, in the celebration of her seventh birthday, Tuesday. Miss Annie Perkins and Miss Margaret Hester, teachers, attended as special guests.

Refreshments of fruit punch, gelatine, whipped cream and cake were served in the dining room. Centering the table was the birthday cake, gleaming with the appropriate number of pink candles, and bringing exclamations of delight from the little guests was a huge Bunny Rabbit and other table decorations of Easter baskets and appointments in the pastel colors.

An egg hunt featured the entertainment program.

Merry Matrons Club Studies Youth Problems

Mrs. R. A. Fields Hostess and J. Con Lanier Speaker At Meeting Tuesday

J. Con Lanier discussed "Youth and Its Problems Today" at one of the most interesting and delightful meetings held by the Merry Matrons in recent months. The meeting of Tuesday, at which Mrs. R. A. Fields was the gracious hostess, was held in the D. A. E. Chapter House. Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins presided and extended a cordial welcome to the large number of guests in attendance.

Mr. Lanier, Greenville attorney and a World War veteran, is well known throughout the State for his interest and activities in behalf of the tobacco control program. He was introduced by Mrs. M. V. Jones, program leader of the afternoon.

In reviewing the problems confronting America in respect to Youth, Mr. Lanier emphasized the seriousness of the present situation caused by the unemployment of the millions of boys and girls, who are waiting impatiently to take their places in the economic structure of this country.

Giving due credit to medical science for lowering the death rate of infants and increasing the span of life, Mr. Lanier listed these, however, as reasons for the growing numbers in the ranks of Youth, and pointed out the facts that the inventive genius of America had been turned into a boomerang taking employment away from millions of workers.

Immigration, unrestricted until recent years, and the fact that there are no more frontiers to offer new opportunities to Youth, were cited also by the speaker as contributing causes to the present unrest.

Concluding his address, Mr. Lanier offered as practical suggestions for solving these problems, the lengthening of the school term to include two years of post graduate work; large and properly equipped recreational centers with trained supervisors; the setting up of new industrial frontiers, with new jobs created by new inventions and the impressing of the ideals and principles of the pioneer builders of these United States of America on the minds of the future citizens.

Bringing the program to a delightful conclusion were vocal selections rendered by Mrs. C. N. Bostic, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. M. V. Jones.

The Chapter House, with its floral decorations of hawthorne, forsythia and other flowering shrubs, presented a springlike setting for the meeting. Delicious refreshments, consisting of stuffed angel cake, with a hot chocolate-marshmallow sauce, coffee, cheese biscuit, mints and salted nuts, were served from a beautifully appointed table placed in front of one of the open fires. The table was centered with a bowl of narcissus, calendula and hyacinths, carrying the chosen color note of yellow and white, which was charmingly emphasized again in the refreshments.

Mrs. D. A. Clarke and Mrs. J. L. Taylor were hostesses at the February meeting of the Garden Club, held in the home of the former, with Miss Tabitha DeVisconti presiding. The executive committee submitted at this time the following plans, which were adopted by the Club:

The sponsoring of a Bird Club, with Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins and Mrs. D. E. Oglesby appointed as an organizing committee;

The planting of a dogwood and a crepe myrtle tree by members on their own grounds and cooperation in enhancing the beauty of the town by requesting that other citizens join in this effort;

Mrs. Lester Turnage requested to consult with the Highway Landscape architect relative to beautifying highway to Lang's Cross Roads;

Miss Bettie Joyner, chairman of conservation, to plan the marking of trees and shrubs in the municipal park.

Mrs. E. F. Gaynor announced that the Flower Show would be held in June and recommended that gladioli be featured in gardens and at the Show.

Mrs. W. Alex Allen and Miss Mary Prior Rouse were appointed as a committee to compile a botanical map of Pitt county.

The members held an exchange of flower seeds and planned a plant and seed exchange for the March meeting. Mrs. T. E. Joyner reported the planting of a live oak tree in the park recently.

A splendid program was developed by Mrs. D. A. Clarke, who read hints on the care and feeding of birds; by Mrs. E. F. Gaynor, who told of the cultivation of gladioli; and by Miss Bettie Joyner, who gave suggestions for activities in the garden during March.

A delicious congealed salad with coffee was served during a pleasant social hour.

A delightful event of the week was the Progressive Bridge Club party, at which Mrs. E. O. Lang was hostess. Tallies, bearing suggestions of Washington's Birthday, directed guests to their places at six tables. Lovely sprays of hawthorne were in artistic arrangements and blooming plants added a note of rich color to the setting.

Mrs. P. E. Jones, a club member, and Mrs. E. D. Rouse, a guest, compiled the high scores and were potted plants. The consolation prize, a plaque, went to Mrs. R. A. Parker. Mrs. W. C. Holston of Norfolk, Va., sister and house guest of the hostess was remembered with a gift.

Ice box cake, hot tea and salted nuts were served, the plates carrying miniature flag decorations. Sharing with members in the pleasures of the afternoon were; Mrs. W. C. Holston, of Norfolk, Va., Mrs. Sallie K. Horton, Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., Mrs. L. E. Walston, Mrs. D. E. Morgan, Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, Mrs. Wesley R. Willis, Mrs. M. V. Horton, Mrs. R. D. Rouse, Mrs. Roy Lassiter, Mrs. W. A. Pollard, Jr., Mrs. J. H. Paylor, Miss Elizabeth Davis, Mrs. E. A. Parker and Mrs. W. E. Joyner.

Scores of Lamrad Club members playing at the home of Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr., this week, were recorded in the tournament series being played by this group. The national colors and motifs associated with Washington's Birthday were used in plate decorations.

An enjoyable meeting of the Ace of Clubs was held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Worthington. Ivy and potted plants were used in effective decorations of the living room, with suggestions of St. Patrick's Day noted in the table appointments and refreshments.

Mrs. Mac Carraway and Mrs. Merette Moore were winners of the club and prizes, potted hyacinths. Sandwiches, pickles and cookies were attractively arranged on hostess plates and served with a favorite beverage after the games. Special guests were Mrs. Merette Moore, Mrs. Rae Smith and Mrs. Frances Spencer.

Mrs. D. R. Morgan delightfully entertained the New Deal Club at a morning series of contract progressions on Wednesday. Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt and Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., scored high, and Mrs. L. E. Walston's score was declared low. Smoking accessories were given as prizes. Ice box pudding and a beverage were served after play.

HOST TO SUPPER COUNCIL

George W. Davis, Superintendent of the Baptist Sunday School, and Mrs. Davis were hosts at a dinner Monday evening in the Rotary dining room, to teachers of the Sunday School and members of the officers council. Covers were laid for 41.
