NOTE OF APPRECIATION

We wish to express to friends in Farmville and community our heartfelt appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown us, for the lovely floral tribute and other expressions of sympathy extended us in our bereavement.

—Mrs. R. D. Murphrey and Family.

SINGING CLASS ON THEIR ANNUAL TOUR

The Oxford Orphanage singing class will pay Farmville its annual visit, Friday evening, April 19th. The concert will be held in the high school auditorium at 8:00 o'clock. There will be no admission charge and the public is cordially invited to attend. This promises to be one of the very best concerts yet presented by this class.

NOTE OF THANKS

We wish to thank each and every one, who helped us pay for our tent and thereby made it possible for us to have the opportunity and pleasure of attending the Camporee, to be held in Kinston, April 19-21. We also wish to thank the truck owners, who furnished us with ways to go to Tarboro and return during the past week-end. We had a very good time in Tarboro.

—FARMVILLE BOY SCOUTS

CELEBRATES 7th BIRTHDAY

Robert Everett Roebuck, attractive little son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Roebuck, entertained ten of his friends at a party, celebrating his seventh anniversary. Games were played on the lawn until the mother of the young host invited the group into the dining room for refreshments.

The table was spread with a lace cloth and covered with a large birth-cake. Floral arrangements and decorations adorned the pink and white table. The occasion was served with a birthday cake and parties were given as follows:

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT BELL ARTHUR CHURCH

Citizens of the Bellarthur community will be especially interested in the service of worship at the Bellarthur Methodist Church this Sunday morning.

The service will be dedicated to six men, each of whom was a pioneer resident of the community, and all of them faithful attendants and devoted servants of the Methodist Church, some for as many as fifty years.

These men, to whom the church will pay tribute include: W. L. Fulford, W. A. White, Sam Erwin, J. L. Wilkerson, Watt Parker and A. A. Joyner. The three last named have died within the past eight months, the others in years gone by.

They were creative community-builders, trail-blazers for those who follow. Their contributions remain a constant challenge to those who live, and their services to the church and other worthwhile organizations of the community entitle them to special recognition.

Acquaintances, friends and relatives of these men are extended a very cordial invitation to this Memorial Service.

Mrs. John B. Wright, Jr. Honored At Bridge Party

Mrs. Copenhaver Extends Social Courtesy; Literary and Card Groups Meet

Hostesses, at parties and meetings this week, have vied with each other in providing artistic settings for the varied affairs, using quantities of iris, tulips, spirea, japonicas, phlox, candytuft and pansies, which are in the height of their beauty here right now. Sprays of pear and apple blossoms also helped to bring the Spring indoors.

Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver charmingly entertained the Wednesday card club and additional friends at a bridge party in compliment to Mrs. John B. Wright, Jr., of Greensboro, who prior to her recent marriage was Miss Evelyn Milburne Horton, of Farmville.

The hostess and honor guests greeted guests as they arrived and places were found by means of tallies bearing floral motifs. The place of the honoree was marked by a corsage of pink roses and white hyacinths. Mrs. Irving Morgan, Jr., was winner of the high score award, a lovely bonbon dish. Mrs. Wright was presented with a silver bread tray by the hostess, who also remembered Mrs. B. Edison Moore, a recent bride, with a gift of linen.

After the games, congealed chicken, dainty sandwiches, crax, pickles, walnut cookies and coffee were served by Mrs. E. C. Beaman, mother of the hostess, Mrs. Rex Hodges and Mrs. Will H. Moore, Jr.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. B. Crow and Mrs. Charles M. Griffin, of Wilson, and Mrs. B. O. Turnage, of Panama.

Mrs. L. F. Williford and Mrs. R. T. Williams were joint hostesses at a delightful meeting of the Junior Woman's Club, held in the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden.

Interesting reports of activities of their committees were made by Mrs. Jack Lewis, Ways and Means chairman; Miss Elizabeth Davis, program chairman, and Mrs. Jesse Moye, scorer of the Point System. Mrs. Lynn Davis gave an account of the "Good Neighbor Tour" from the "Clubwoman", and Mrs. Howard-Moye talked on the Garden Department of the Woman's Club.

Mrs. J. Leroy Parker presided and introduced Dr. John M. Mewborn, the speaker of the afternoon, who discussed the war being waged in the United States on Cancer.

Mrs. Jesse Moye was elected as a delegate to the State Federation meeting and Mrs. Elbert C. Holmes was elected as the new club sponsor.

A quiz, relating to the Golden Jubilee being celebrated by club women throughout the country, was concluded with a special offering for the Birthday Box.

Delicious orange shortcake was served at the conclusion of the program. Following this, the members were invited into the dining room, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, the table being centered with a huge birthday cake illumined with fifty candles, which further emphasized the celebration being held in observance of the Golden Jubilee anniversary. Punch was served here.

Mrs. J. Sterling Gates and Mrs. George W. Davis were joint hostesses at the meeting of the Fine Arts Club, at which a review of Bernice Kelly Harris' book, "Purslane" was given by Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Sr. Miss Annie Perkins presided and as her contribution to the program, read Ogden Nash's poem, "Spring Hats and Colds."

A delicious salad course was served following a business session.

The Rebecca Winbourne Chapter, U. D. C., met this week with Mrs. E. L. Barrett. Mrs. G. M. Holden presided over the business session, and Miss Annie Perkins conducted the devotional period. The program of the District meeting to be held in Scotland Neck on April 17, was discussed at this time.

In continuation of the chapter's study of "Southern Cities", the spotlight was held on Montgomery, Ala., by Mrs. R. D. Rouse, and on Nashville, Tenn., by Mrs. Holden.

The delightful refreshments consisted of ices, cake and salted nuts.

The Couple Club was delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones, with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, Mrs. W. A. Pollard, Jr., and Mrs. J. Y. Monk sharing in the pleasures of the evening as additional guests.

Compiling high scores for the men and women, Arthur F. Joyner and Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner were awarded lovely prizes.

Ice cream, cake and salted nuts were served after play.

An interesting and delightful meeting of the Merry Matrons was held this week with Mrs. M. V. Horton as hostess. Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins presided. Featuring the program was a comprehensive review of Bernice Kelly Harris' "Purslane", by Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Sr.

Delicious ice box cake was followed by black coffee, a variety of cookies and salted nuts. Pansies made a colorful plate decoration. Mrs. J. H. Harris was a special guest of the hostess.

Miss Annie Perkins was hostess to the Literary Club at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hobgood on Wednesday. Mrs. John B. Joyner, first vice president presided and welcomed the special guests. Mrs. Joyner was elected to represent this group at the state Federation meeting to be held in Greensboro, May 1-3.

The program for the afternoon, under the subject of "Music Hath Charm", was aptly developed by Mrs. Daisy Holmes Smith. In her discussion, Mrs. Smith defined music, told why many people sacrifice food for opera tickets; why the majority of people do not have a deep understanding of music—to some it is jazz, to others crooning, to others a chorus of beautiful voices, to others a great soloist giving great interpretation to the great masters; of its use as a crime preventative and of the change good music has made in character.

During the course of Mrs. Smith's lecture, Mrs. J. Sterling Gates sang "The Call of A Friend", Mrs. C. N. Bostic sang "Beloved It Is Morn", and Mrs. John D. Holmes rendered "The Lord's Prayer as a solo, with accompaniment by Mrs. Haywood Smith.

The delicious refreshments served at the close of the meeting, consisted of strawberry ice cream, nuts and coffee. Plate decorations were miniature vases, swans and baskets filled with pansies. Assisting in serving were Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, Miss Edna Robinson and Miss Mary Dorcas Harding.

Special guests were: Mrs. J. Sterling Gates, Mrs. C. N. Bostic, Mrs. Frank Davis, Sr., Mrs. D. E. Oglesby, Mrs. J. W. Holmes, Mrs. John D. Holmes, Mrs. Elbert C. Holmes, Mrs. George W. Davis, Mrs. J. M. Wheelers, Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, Mrs. B. B. Fordham, and Miss Mary Dorcas Harding.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

Many men and women have been and many more are becoming opposed to war. Some churches like the Friends and Menonites have refused to bear arms, declaring war to be unchristian. Often these Conscientious Objectors have been cruelly persecuted even by their own brethren. Today many Governments respect the Conscientious Objector. The British are very kind to this class today.

More churches are feeling that war is unchristian and futile, and if this international murder is ever abolished, the churches must take the initiative and make sacrifice necessary. In order to register the thinking of men of the churches in this field, many churches are enrolling those who are opposed to war and preserving the record thereof. The Disciples of Christ have since 1936 in the National Convention affirmed the right of freedom of conscience.

April 21st. has been designated as the day for the enrollment of Conscientious Objectors. The Christian church here is cooperating in the Brotherhood movement. Cards will be furnished those who wish to enroll as Conscientious Objectors to war, and those who so enroll will be given the protection of the church in case of war. No one is asked to sign, this is not propaganda, but the opportunity is given you by your church to exercise your consciences in this matter. This is for you to decide.

A special service is arranged for that day.

C. B. Mashburn.

DR. GREGG APPOINTED RABIES INSPECTOR

Dr. M. J. Gregg has been made rabies inspector for Farmville township. In interviewing Dr. Gregg today, the Veterinarian stated that he was planning to make a house to house canvass beginning Monday morning, for the convenience of dog owners.
