NEWS FROM YOUR BOYS

We all had a wonderful time at the Boy Scout Camporee in Kinston last week-end and wish we could have stayed much longer. We received next to high honors for our efforts and we have resolved to work harder than ever next year for we want Farmville and Troop No. 25 to be among the leaders, where we belong. Loyal support from our community is our greatest need at present. If we can get this we pledge to become one of the best troops in Eastern Carolina. Dads, can we count on you and all other dads to back us up and help to make Troop No. 25 proud of Troop No. 25. Which will it be? —YOUR BOYS AND MINE.

Guest Speakers Feature Special Club Programs

Addresses On Current Topics Heard at Club Meetings This Week

A wealth of Spring flowers, now in the height of their beauty, including spirea, tulips, iris, quince, azaleas, violets, cowslips and pansies have graced homes of hostesses, who have entertained literary, civic and card groups here this week.

The April meeting of the Garden Club was held with Mrs. C. N. Bostic as hostess, and Miss Tabitha DeVisconti presiding. "America, The Beautiful" was sung as an opening selection.

Developing a program of unusual interest was a talk on "Observance of National Garden Club Week" by Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, and a discussion of local civic projects, undertaken by this group, led by Mrs. T. E. Joyner. In listing worthwhile accomplishments, Mrs. Joyner mentioned the elimination of bill boards; the removal of garbage cans to the backyards, the sponsoring of an extensive planting program of scarlet climbing roses; beautification of the municipal park and approaches to the town and the launching of a rat eradication campaign.

Suggestions for further civic improvements, as made by members, included the support of a movement to request renters to beautify grounds as well as owners, the planting of unsightly places, a movement to keep merchandise off the sidewalks of Main street, the donation of shrubs for grounds of the new agricultural building and flower seeds to school children for planting. Miss Bettie Joyner read a selection, "May Gardening Activities."

Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, retiring president, made a brief talk in turning the gavel over to Mrs. John W. Holmes, newly elected head of the group. Mrs. Holmes addressed the club and introduced the other officers, elected to serve with her; Mrs. W. Alexander Allen, vice president; Mrs. W. E. Joyner, secretary and members of the program committee, Mrs. Ben Lewis, Mrs. B. S. Sheppard and Mrs. H. D. Moye. Mrs. W. E. Joyner was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Holmes, who is to represent this group at the State Garden Club meeting in Winston-Salem, discussed the program at this time.

Delicious ices, decorated cakes, nuts and mints were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Rex Hodges, a special guest.

The program of the April, meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was featured with a splendid address on "Child Welfare" by A. B. Corey, of Greenville, State Senator. Mr. Corey emphasized the need for maternity clinics and attention before the child reaches the juvenile courts. He also impressed the need for enforcing the laws regarding school attendance. The speaker was introduced by Dr. Paul E. Jones, who was presented by Mrs. E. F. Gaynor, program leader of the afternoon.

Bringing the program to a delightful close were vocal selections by Mrs. C. N. Bostic with Mrs. Haywood Smith as accompanist.

A refreshing ice course was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Frank Davis Jr., Mrs. M. L. Eason and Mrs. B. R. Fields. Mrs. Corey, wife of the speaker was a special guest at this time.

A most enjoyable meeting of the Junior Woman's Club was held with Miss Frances Winstead and Mrs. J. E. Wilkinson as hostesses in the home of the former. Mrs. Jesse Moye, vice president, presided. The featured speaker of the afternoon program, was Mrs. P. W. Pickelsimer, of Greenville, who gave an interesting and comprehensive review of Rachel Field's book, "All This and Heaven Too."

In a business session, which followed, Mrs. Jesse Moye was elected as a delegate to the State Federation meeting to be held in Greensboro this month, and chairman of committees were appointed as follows: Program, Mrs. Ed Sykes; year book, Mrs. Claude Tyson; point system, Mrs. L. J. Williford, ways and means, Mrs. R. T. Williams; membership, Mrs. Carl Blackwood.

Guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table was centered with a lovely floral arrangement of mixed spring bloom and illumined by candles. Mrs. John W. Holmes, mother of Miss Winstead, and Mrs. J. Sterling Gates were seated at either end of the table serving ices and decorated cakes. Mints and nuts were passed by the hostesses. Special guests were Mrs. J. S.

Gates, Mrs. James Wilkinson, Miss Frances Beaman, Miss Margaret Hester and Miss Paschall.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner were gracious hosts at a meeting of the Couple Club, at which Mrs. W. E. Joyner was winner of the high score prize for ladies, a picture, and Dr. W. M. Willis won the men's prize, sox. Miss Elizabeth Davis shared pleasures of the evening as a special guest of the hosts. Pie a la mode was served after play.

A delightful meeting of the Merry Matrons was held on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. M. V. Jones as hostess and Mrs. E. LeRoy Rollins presiding. Mrs. J. I. Morgan, program leader for the afternoon, presented Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, who discussed a subject of paramount interest to femininity, "Correct Grooming", pointing out in her discourse the importance of exercise, posture and care of the entire body.

The delicious refreshments served during a pleasant social hour, consisted of strawberry shortcake, coffee, cheese biscuit, cookies and salted nuts.

Special guests were Mrs. Annie Riggsbee, Mrs. John B. Joyner, Mrs. J. S. Gates, and Mrs. Thomas Ryan. One of the largest and loveliest social affairs of the week was the bridge supper, at which Mrs. Charles E. Fitzgerald was hostess, entertaining guests for eight tables at the Home Demonstration Club cabin on the Farmville-Fountain highway.

In the bridge games, played from four to six o'clock, Miss Mae Joyner compiled high score and was awarded a beautiful potted plant, the floating slam prize, a picture, was retained by Mrs. James Smith, and Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson received a vase as consolation.

At six o'clock a barbecue plate, iced tea and coffee were served, followed by lemon chiffon pie.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. J. M. Fitzgerald, of Wilson; Mrs. Earl Lang, Mrs. Ray West, Sr., and Mrs. Ray West, Jr., of Walsenburg; Mrs. W. R. Harris and Mrs. Hunt, of Fountain.
