Building Boom Hits Farmville With Amazing Results

Construction Activities Go Forward at Estimated Cost of $125,000.00

Farmville was hit by another building boom recently, and construction and remodeling activity in general has been increasing steadily, the upward trend in the business district signaling progress and that of residential building is most encouraging.

A recent survey revealed the greatest improvements made to property here since last fall to be as follows:

New Baptist Church; A. C. Monk,

Jr., residence, Church street; Dr. W. M. Willis, clinic building on Main street; A. C. Monk, Sr., remodeled three stores on Main street; G. A. Mrs. Lizzie Flanagan, remodeled residence; Sing Oil Co. new filling station, Main street; Harry Lang, remodeled Wooten's filling station, Wilson street; R. D. Rouse, residence, Contentnea street; L. B. Johnson, residence, Grimmersburg street; Creekmur lumber yard, Contentnea street; B. A. Grant, residence, Contentnea street; J. M. Stansill, residence, Lang street; J. R. Shearin, residence, Waverly street; Arthur Gay, residence, Waverly street; Paul Tripp, residence, Wilson street; C. B. Mashburn, Jr., residence; Carl Blackwood, residence, Waverly street; L. T. Lucas, residence, Wilson street; Ed Nash Warren, residence, Horne street; R. K. Pippin, residence; A. C. Monk remodeled Fields home on Pine street; Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, residence, Horne street; Elbert C. Holmes, addition and remodeled home, Main street; W. A. Pollard, Jr., residence, Belcher street; Mrs. Lizzie Flanagan, remodeled residence, Church street; Hadley Bryan, residence, Main street; W. B. Shoe, remodeling Baptist Church into apartment house on Wilson street; F. M. Davis, Sr., garage to Gulf station on Wilson street; L. B. Johnson remodeling Taylor house on Wilson street into apartment building; E. C. Carr, residence, Home Ave.

The listed improvements do not include homes or stores which were merely painted, but thousands of dollars must have been spent in this way during the past few weeks, for the entire town looks as if it had been dipped by a giant hand into a paint bucket.

Farmville News Of Interest, Sept. 1918

One of the most interesting of the yellowed copies of the ENTERPRISE brought in when we requested early copies, was that of September 20, 1918, left by J. W. Joyner, and filled to the brim with war news.

The headlines include these: MORALES OF GERMANS LOW; BAD NEWS FOR BERLIN; WARTIME BLDG. RULES ANNOUNCED; ROWAN SOLDIER IS HONORED; AIRPLANE SQUADRON SILENCE; BIG GUNS; PRESENT BATTLE-FIELDS SCENE OF CENTURIES OF WAR; SCHOOL BOYS NEEDED TO HELP HARVEST CROPS; GREAT MANY DESERTERS FROM GERMAN ARMY; HONORED FOR GALLANTRY; PRICE OF GASOLINE TO BE CUT.

The Farmville Furniture Co. had an adv. which read: "Fortunately we have been able to get in one more shipment of Pianos, Player Pianos, and Victrolas, and if you would stop to think of the scarcity of these at this time you would not delay getting yours at once. You may not be able to get them later. Visit our store and select yours while we have them on hand."

The Chautauqua program for the week included: The Five Liberty Belles; Dr. J. G. Cornwall was to lecture on "The Call to the Colors," and "When Our Boys Come Home." The importance of the American Red Cross was emphasized the last day of the Chautauqua with a Red Cross nurse explaining the service.

J. R. Lewis had a notice to milk customers:

"Owing to the continued advance in the price of feedstuffs, as well as everything else, I am forced to raise the price on milk. Therefore, beginning September 1st, the price will be 18 cents a quart instead of 15 cents as heretofore."

Under a government emblem was this notice:

"ON ALL DAYS: With each purchase of wheat flour for home use, you must buy also an equal amount of cereals."

The Christian Church notice sent in by W. P. Jordan, pastor announced that Rev. R. L. Davis, of Raleigh, would speak the next Sunday on "How Uncle Sam Will Whip The Kaiser."

THE ENTERPRISE was cutting expired subscription names from its list due to order of the War Industries Board "in an effort to conserve the paper supply of the nation, which is running low. Remember if you fail to get your paper it isn't that we doubt your honesty but we are complying with an order of the government just as dangerous to violate as it is for the merchant to sell you sugar and flour in excess of the amount allowed."

Significant Personals: "Mr. Richard Bynum of the U. S. Coast Artillery is home for a few days.

Mrs. M. T. Moye, Mrs. A. J. Moye, and Mr. Cliff Moye left on the 3 o'clock train this morning for Camp Jackson, Columbia, to see Mr. M. T. Moye, who expects to leave for France in a short while.

Mrs. Roderick Staley, formerly Miss Susie Morgan, and a teacher in the Farmville Graded School, spent the past week end here with Mrs. W. T. Ruffin. Captain Stanley is "Somewhere in France."

Mr. B. A. Joyner has received a telegram from his brother, J. W. Joyner, who has been attending the Technician School at the University of South Carolina, stating that he had successfully passed examination to enter the Officer's Training School at Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. W. C. Askew has received the following telegram from his son, W. H. Askew, who has been drawing an allowance:

"Somewhere in France since the first of May. Landed safely in Boston Saturday, the cause of my coming home was the weakened condition of my hand, owing to wound in right arm and shoulder. Am receiving best treatment. Wire me how you all are at home."

Athletic Christian College has been made a Student training camp. If you are a young man within the draft age and want to go to school and get paid for it, write Pres. R. A. Smith, A. C. C. Wilson, at once.

Work for All Red Cross Workers The third allotment of surgical dressing has now been secured and work rooms will be opened in the Horton Building next Tuesday and Thursday with Mrs. Jasper L. Shackelford and Miss Novella Horton in charge.

A call for 360 small cotton pads. Workers are needed. There will also be a campaign on for the Belgium Relief, beginning September 23. This is a call that all can respond to. We wish to raise 1,000 pounds of old clothing, something that will stand shipping. A call to our good people in the country, as well as in town. Bring these to the work rooms Tuesday and Thursday.

Lets all get up our castaway garments and help relieve the suffering. The report of the condition of the Citizen's Bank at close of business, August 31, 1918 by W. R. Willis, cashier, stated that resources were $402,135.00, including United States Bonds and Liberty Bonds in the amount of $24,695.58.

What memories these news items bring back!! The question in the minds of the editors just now is, Will we print similar headlines again?

To The People of Pitt County:

I have never been a "Politician", but there is a man running for the House of Representatives. He is J. W. H. Roberts (Jimmy) Roberts. I have known him since he was a boy. He worked on my farm; ran a store for me; and lived in my home. He has worked his own way from a farm boy to lawyer and I believe he will make us a good representative, and without discussing this notice with any of the "Politicians," I know him to be an honest and capable man.
