ADULT EDUCATION NOTES

Education for those of any age seeking it must have a definite place in our democracy.

The chief contributions of Adult Education are the discovery and removal of handicaps; the discovery and development and use of individual talents; the development of participation, and the stimulation of continual learning.

In the homemaking class pupils are taught how to make furnishings for and arrange them in the home; sanitation, personal hygiene, budgeting, purchase and preparation of food and simple home comforts and all of the items which are necessary to stretch low incomes and to make a house a home.

The Workers' Conference for Adult Education Teachers will be held at Womans' College U. N. C., Greensboro, N. C., from July 1st to 13th. Miss Florence Lewis, local Adult Education teacher is planning to attend this Conference.

Miss Turnage Honors Popular Young Couple

Hostess at Dinner Prior To Hassell-Benson Wedding; Clubs Hold Final Summer Meetings

Miss Eva Mae Turnage, a bride-maid in the Hassell-Benson wedding, entertained at a lovely pre-nuptial dinner party, in compliment to Miss Mary Harrison Benson, of Nashville, and Mr. Andrew Pierson Hassell, Jr., of Greenville, whose wedding occurred on Saturday evening in the Nashville Methodist Church.

The table was spread with a drawn work cloth and centered with a crystal bowl of mixed white flowers. Tall white tapers were in crystal holders. Covers were laid for twenty and a four course dinner was served at seven o'clock, the ices being molded in bridal motifs. The place of Miss Benson was marked with a lovely corsage.

Guests enjoying the hospitality of Miss Turnage in addition to the honorees were; Miss Doris Benson, sister of the bride elect, and Harry Ballard, of Nashville, Mr. and Mrs. W. Alex Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Paylor, Mr. and Mrs. Edison Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Eason, Miss Margaret Greyson, of High Point, Miss Geraldine Gardner, Miss Hazel Monk, Andy Martin, Billy Morton, James Monk and George Allen.

Mrs. J. I. Morgan was hostess at the final summer meeting of the Merry Matrons, entertaining this group at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden, which was decorated with quantities of lovely flowers.

During the period devoted to business, Mrs. B. O. Turnage submitted topics for study in the fall as sent out by the University Extension Division; the club voted to donate $5 to the American Red Cross Relief Fund at this time, and members offered their services in the sewing room here.

Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins presided and as program leader reviewed Marjorie Wilson's book, "Your Personality and God," which depicts the human soul in its pursuit of happiness which is finally found within.

A delectable salad course with dainty sandwiches, cookies and tea were served.

The June meeting of the Garden Club was held with Miss Mary Friar Rouse and Mrs. E. B. Hodge as joint hostesses in the home of the former. Yellow lilies, Shasta daisies and other flowers from her own garden were used with artistic effect by Miss Rouse in decorating her home.

Refreshments were served in an appetizing and attractive manner, the cookies being arranged in a miniature sugar bucket and the sandwiches rolled and tied with green and yellow ribbons and placed in a cut flower basket. Iced fruit juice was served also.

The members then visited the gardens of Miss Rouse and Mrs. Allen, Mrs. F. M. Davis and Mrs. J. I. Morgan. Here Miss Bettie Joyner, conservation chairman, had them pause to discuss garden activities for the month of July.
