Speakers Bring Messages of Current Events to Groups

The Rebecca Winbourne Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held their regular monthly meeting on Friday afternoon, with Mrs. G. M. Holden as hostess.

Mrs. Robert Rouse gave an interesting talk, using as her subject, "Richmond." During a short business session, the following officers were elected for the year: Mrs. G. M. Holden, president; Mrs. T. H. Knott, vice president; Mrs. R. W. Lang, secretary; Mrs. J. Y. Monk, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Rouse, historian; Miss Annie Perkins, chaplain; Mrs. Haywood Smith, leader of Children's Chapter; Mrs. J. W. Parker, registrar.

The hostess served hot tea with a variety of sandwiches and cookies. Mrs. John King was hostess to her card club on Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden.

Upon arrival, coco-colas and a variety of sandwiches, pickles and olives, attractively arranged on hostess plates, were served. A color scheme of green and yellow was used.

Mrs. H. H. Bradham, scoring high, won cards, and Miss Elizabeth Davis received a similar award as consolation. Special guests were: Mrs. Rex Hodges, Mrs. Tommy Ryon, Mrs. Irvin Morgan, Jr., and Mrs. R. E. Pickett.

Mrs. J. O. Pollard graciously entertained the members of the Merry Matrons Club and additional guests on Tuesday afternoon at the Major Benjamin May Chapter House, which was artistically decorated with beautiful dahlias and other fall flowers.

Mrs. J. T. Thorne was in charge of the program. The speaker of the afternoon was Miss Cornelia Keuzencamp of Greenville, who has just completed her musical study in violin in the city of Brussels, Belgium. She was to have played for the Belgian Queen, but due to the war situation, she was unable to do so. Miss Keuzencamp told of her experiences in the war-torn countries, of her escape, and voyage home.

Out of town guests included: Mrs. D. M. Clark, Miss Keuzencamp, and Mrs. Alwyn Darden, of Greenville.

For a delightful social hour, the hostess invited her guests to the banquet hall of the Chapter House, where delicious refreshments were served. The table was decorated with autumn leaves and North Carolina lupins. Mrs. A. C. Monk served ice cream, molded in fruit designs, from one end of the table, and Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins poured coffee from the other end. Mrs. W. A. Pollard, Jr., Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst and Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson served angel food cake, nuts, mints and cheese straws.

Mrs. S. A. Garris was hostess to the New Deal Club and other guests on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden. Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, scoring high, and Mrs. Edison Moore, scoring second high, received gifts of face powder.

Special guests were: Mrs. Lath Morriss and Mrs. Edison Moore. Following play, a delicious salad course with hot tea was served.

The Junior Woman's Club enjoyed a delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl Blackwood, with Mrs. Blackwood and Mrs. W. H. Duke as hostesses. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. J. Leroy Parker.

The program followed with Mrs. Jesse Moye giving an interesting and enlightening talk on "The Pan-American Union." Mrs. Moye skillfully linked this with the "Good Neighbor Tour" taken by Federation representatives this past summer. At the conclusion of her talk, Mrs. Moye passed interesting pictures, coins and lava from South America.

The club then held its business session. The projects for the year were discussed and it was also decided that the Juniors will help the Senior Woman's Club with a brunswick stew supper to be given at the Country Club this month.

Mrs. Curtis Flanagan gave a satisfactory report from the finance committee, and Mrs. Jack Lewis reported on the Baby Contest, being sponsored by this group under the leadership of Mrs. R. T. Williams. Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss gave a report on the "Club Woman." Mrs. Charlie Meyer, treasurer, also gave a report. The Club then adjourned after repeating the club collect.

The hostesses served a delicious ice course, carrying out the fall motif with orange, green and brown color scheme.

Beginning the next meeting, the Junior Woman's Club will meet at three instead of three-thirty o'clock. Mrs. David T. Harris will be the hostess at the second October meeting.

BRUNSWICK STEW SUPPER

Brunswick stew will feature the supper menu of the Woman's Club at the event being sponsored by them at the Country Club on Tuesday, October 22. Lath Morriss, famous "stewer" will be chief cook. A good patronage is requested and desired by the committees in charge. Receipts will be used for the Library Building.

ATTEND MEETING

Attending the Roanoke Baptist Association meeting, held in Nashville, on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week were: Rev. B. B. Fordham, Mrs. John D. Holmes, Mrs. A. B. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Manly Liles, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. M. P. McConnell.

Rev. Mr. Fordham made a talk and Mrs. John D. Holmes rendered a vocal selection at one of the sessions.

NOTE OF THANKS

The Junior Woman's Club wishes to thank all of the mothers of the contestants for their help in the recent Baby Popularity Contest, all of the girls sponsoring the contestants, and all of those who so obligingly contributed in any way to its success. We particularly want to thank the Wheelless Drug Co. and the City Drug Co. for their courtesies in giving us space in which to conduct the balloting.

THE JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB, Mrs. R. T. Williams, Chairman.

AT INSTITUTE MEETING

Mrs. T. C. Turnage attended the Institute of Government conducted by the State Democratic Executive Committee, in Raleigh, Friday. Mrs. Turnage, as Director of the Speaker's Bureau, made a talk, and also assisted at the tea given at the Governor's mansion in the afternoon.
