Mrs. J. Y. Monk Hostess At Lovely Luncheon

Fiser - Monk Engagement Announced and Mrs. Lang Honored; Mrs. Lang Gives Tea For Her Mother

Mrs. J. Y. Monk charmingly entertained thirty friends at a lovely luncheon at the Country Club, on Tuesday, the occasion honoring jointly her daughter, Miss Hazel Lang Monk, whose engagement to Bob Vernon Fiser was announced at this time, and Mrs. Harry R. Harper, of Richmond, Va., formerly of Farmville, whose marriage occurred recently.

The honoree table, with covers laid for eight, was spread with a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of white caryatids and smagragons. Similar but smaller arrangements were used on the auxiliary tables. A three course turkey luncheon was served, the ices carrying the chosen colors of green and white and the wedding bell motif.

Announcement of the engagement of the popular young couple, which here cards and lily of the valley arrangements with the message "Bob and Hazel, November 23."

Mrs. Harper was presented with silver in her chosen pattern by the hostess, and Mrs. T. H. Clark, of Douglas, Ga., was remembered with a gift.

One of the loveliest events of the week was an informal tea, at which Mrs. James R. Lang entertained, honoring her mother, Mrs. T. H. Clark, of Douglas, Ga. The Lang home was artistically decorated with handsome dahlias.

In the dining room the colors of pink and white were effectively carried in floral decorations and refreshments, the table bearing an imported cloth and a centerpiece of pink decorative dahlias in a silver bowl, flanked by pink candles in silver candelabra. Mrs. F. M. Davis poured tea from one end of the table. Assisting in serving the dainty sandwiches, cookies and mints were Mrs. Nannie Mays Humphrey, Mrs. J. Y. Monk and Mrs. P. E. Jones.

Fall activities of the Junior Woman's Club were continued at a delightful meeting held at the home of Mrs. David T. Harris with Mrs. J. P. Surratt as joint hostess. Open fires and decorations of autumn foliage, fruits and pumpkins lent seasonal cheer to the home.

The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. Leroy Parker, who requested reports from the chairmen of the various committees. Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss gave items of interest to Junior Club women from the Club Woman.

Mrs. Elbert C. Holmes, program chairman for the afternoon, introduced Miss Georgia Brewer, a member of the faculty of Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, who gave an entertaining and delightful travelogue with interest centering in Mexico.

A delicious sweet course was served during the social hour. Special guests were Mrs. Walter B. Jones and Mrs. W. H. Moore.
