Social Activities Continue to Center About Bride Elect

Miss Hazel Lang Monk Recipient of Lovely Pre Nuptial Affairs During The Week

Social activities of the week here continue to center about Miss Hazel Lang Monk, whose marriage to Mr. Rob Vernon Fiser, of Adairville, Ky., will take place in the Christian Church at 5:00 o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon.

Among the lovely pre-nuptial affairs of the week was the bride party given in compliment to Miss Monk by Miss Mary Ellen Yelverton. The tables were arranged, each with a reflector-center bearing miniature coronas of pastel flowers and ribbons in shower effect, with the bride elect's table marked by a larger coronet, and a bric a brac souvenir in wedding ring design. The room was illuminated by candlelight and a miniature wedding scene added a charming note to the decorations.

After the guests had arrived plum pudding topped with cream and green cherries coffee and salted nuts were served and later in the evening ice cream fruit juice was passed.

In the progressive games of contract, Mrs. George Moore, Jr., scored high and was awarded a bridge cover; Mrs. J. Y. Monk retained the floating prize of novel ash trays, and Mrs. Rex Hodges received a potted plant as consolation. The hostess presented Miss Monk with china in her chosen pattern.

Mrs. Ted L. Albritton and Mrs. James E. Lang entertained at a beautifully appointed buffet luncheon, complimentary to Miss Monk, with members of the bridal party and other friends numbering twenty.

The table bore a lace cover and was centered with an arrangement of white and pink chrysanthemums. The hostesses, seated at either end of the table, served chicken loaf and tomato aspic. Potatoes au gratin, rolls, assorted pickles, macaroni tortoni and coffee were served from the buffet. Cranberry juice cocktail was served at the individual tables, where mint cups bore tiny coronas and also indicated the places of guests.

Mrs. H. L. Watson, sister of the bride elect, and Mrs. Plato Monk, both of Wilson, were out of town guests.

Mrs. A. Everett James entertained Miss Monk and the bridal party at a charming breakfast, Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden. The bride elect's table bore a centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums and the auxiliary tables were centered with similar arrangements. The bride elect was remembered with a silver compote.

A number of friends, entertained Mr. Fiser at a stag supper in Greenville Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Monk, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr., will be hosts at a dinner party honoring the popular young couple tonight, Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Jones and Miss Vernice Lang Jones will entertain following the rehearsal on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Watson, of Wilson, will be hosts at a luncheon for the bridal party and out of town guests at the Country Club on Saturday.

Members of the Contract Club and additional guests, Miss Hazel Lang Monk, bride elect, her mother, Mrs. J. Y. Monk, and sister, Mrs. H. L. Watson, of Wilson, Mrs. Billy Burke, Mrs. W. M. Willis, Mrs. P. E. Jones and Mrs. H. H. Bradham enjoyed an afternoon of bridge with Mrs. Lath Morris as hostess. A color note of yellow and white was carried in the floral decorations of handsome chrysanthemums and the Thanksgiving season was emphasized in the tallies and table appointments.

Mrs. W. E. Joyner, winning high score for club members, was awarded a crystal hostess plate and Mrs. W. M. Willis, scoring high for guests, received a flower bowl. Miss Monk was given silver in her pattern by the hostess, and Mrs. Watson, was remembered with a potted plant.

Mince pie topped with cream, coffee, cheese straws and salted nuts were served.

An interesting meeting of the Literary Club was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden, with Mrs. H. Neal Howard as hostess. Chrysanthemums were used with pleasing effect throughout the home.

Mrs. J. W. Joyner presided and announced the program, which was featured with a paper written by Mrs. P. E. Jones and read by Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson in which the life and career of Dr. Josephine Baker, a pioneer in preventive medicine was recounted as gleaned from the book "Fighting For Life."

A delicious pineapple salad course with a variety of sandwiches and coffee were served.

Mrs. Travis Hooker, of Greenville was a visitor here Thursday.

WALTONSBERG SCHOOL TO PRESENT PLAY

"Billie's Courtship" a three-act farce by Austin Coates, will be presented by members of the Junior High School of Walton's Berg, Wednesday night, November 22, at 8:00. The admission will be ten and twenty cents.

MRS. WELLS HONORED AT LOVELY BRIDGE PARTY

Greenville, Nov. 20th.—Mrs. John Warner Wells, of Richmond, Va., who has been on the Farmville Tobacco Market with her husband this season, was honored by Mrs. S. F. Heath at a lovely bridge party, Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. E. B. Ferguson.

Twelve tables were placed in rooms made colorful with fall flowers, and with appointments suggestive of the Thanksgiving season. After the games, prizes were awarded as follows:

Mrs. C. E. Womack received high score prize for local guests, with Mrs. Wells compiling high among out of town guests. The consolation went to Mrs. B. E. Conley, and the prize offered members of Mrs. Heath's bridge club was won by Mrs. Durwood Hart. The hostess presented the honoree with a gift of costume jewelry.

A delicious salad course, cake and coffee were served after the games. Farmville friends in attendance were: Mrs. Wells, Mrs. R. T. Williams, Mrs. Rex Hodges, Mrs. J. T. Windham, Mrs. D. R. Morgan, Mrs. L. E. Fickett, Mrs. M. V. Jones, Mrs. R. L. Smith, Mrs. Fred Oates, Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr., Mrs. Tommie Ryan, Mrs. John E. King, Miss Mary Friar Rouse, Mrs. John M. Mewborn, Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver and Mrs. Pat Ruffin.

PRIDGEN-JOHNSON

Friends here and throughout the State have received the following announcement this week:

"Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jones announce the marriage of their daughter, Willie Lee Johnson, to Archie Howard Pridden, on Thursday, the fourteenth of November, nineteen hundred and forty, Wilson, North Carolina."

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Johnny Bill Meadows, attractive son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Meadows, observed his seventh birthday Wednesday with a party, which was held at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. B. Caraway, and attended by 40 friends.

The grandmother of the young host was assisted by Mrs. Florence Thorne in the entertaining program, which consisted of story telling, games and contests. James Thorne won the turkey contest, as he secured to know just where a turkey's head should be.

After opening his gifts, the small host invited his guests to gather about the table centered with the huge birthday cake, and as they sang "Happy Birthday" the candles were lighted. The cake was served with the ices, and assorted candies and whistles were given as favors.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hollaman of Marshall, a daughter, Donna Elizabeth, at Mission Hospital, Asheville, November 18. The baby was named for its mother, maternal grandmother, paternal great grandmother, and several aunts. Mrs. Hollaman was formerly Miss Myra Elizabeth Westbrook, of Raleigh, and the father is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hollaman of Farmville.

APPRECIATION

Just a word of thanks to every one who helped to make the fish and oyster supper at the Ballard's Community Building a perfect success. Notwithstanding the unpleasant weather, our friends came with cheerful music and pleasant smiles, making us glad that we had ventured on this enterprise. Some of them entertained us with music and song, while others partook of the food. Everyone appeared to have enjoyed the evening. We are especially thankful for the substantial returns.
